CHURCH PRAISE BOOK:

A SELECTION OF HYMNS AND TUNES

FOR

CHRISTIAN WORSHIP.

M.W. Stryker & H.P. Mann

"Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand."

"That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow; and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father."

PREFACE.

Wm. J. Lincoln.

THIS manual is offered to the Church as a compact hand-book for the united praise of the entire congregation—"young men and maidens, old men and children."

It is a critical selection from the ever enriching store of Christian song;—not a library. It is believed, however, that its seven hundred and twenty-eight hymns will abundantly meet all the requirements of public worship, and be found, in many themes, exceptionally rich.

The music, widely chosen, is neither frigid nor flippant, but lovable, and, because devout, enduring.

The book is an advance, but a conservative one; by no means presuming against the resonant memories of the American Church, nor, with a startling originality, disjoining the wedded hands of old and cherished adaptations. It, however, contains much more music than any similar collection, and, with what is familiar and precious, is blended the stately river-flow of the noblest German chorals, and the best of the modern, but already classic, English church-songs, whose purity and fervor are deep wells of worship, and whose clear melody and decisive movement will rapidly endear them to the very children.

We venture to say that an honest study will find none of the book impracticable or uninteresting.

Great labor has been given to secure the utmost accuracy in the authorial data. We believe that, in this regard, no similar American book can show such scrupulous editing.

Familiarity of use will find the indices sufficient for a book of these contents; the simple but careful classification, with the clear page-headings, rendering superfluous an array of stanza-lines, topics, scripture texts, etc.

The symmetrical page, with its type distinct even to aged eyes; the presence of its suitable tune with each hymn; the convenient size; the careful presswork; the durable binding and the moderate cost; are subordinate but cumulative pleas for favor.

Acknowledgment is hereby made to OLIVER DITSON & Co., A. S. BARNES & Co., and others, for authority to print a number of copyright tunes. Thanks are rendered to HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & Co. for the use of two hymns by OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES, LL.D.; and to RAY PALMER, D.D., EDWIN F. HATFIELD, D.D., WM. H. WALTER, D.Mus., NATHAN B. WARREN, D.Mus., S. BURT SAXTON, and many other friends, for the free use of their hymns and tunes, and for many gracious suggestions.

We beg leave to suggest the desirability of having an active and well-trained chorus choir, and of holding stated meetings for the musical drill of the entire congregation; and we would urge a hearty interest in the book at all the firesides of the churches using it.

We submit our labor of love to all Christian people, as heartily Evangelical and Catholic; and pray Him "who inhabits the praises of Israel," that He will own and bless it to the fostering of His worship by "ALL THE PEOPLE."

HUBERT P. MAIN.

Our Lord's Prayer.

OUR Father, which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from Evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, forever.
Amen.

The Nicene Creed.

“ I BELIEVE IN ONE GOD, THE FATHER ALMIGHTY, Maker of Heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible : and in ONE LORD JESUS CHRIST, the only begotten Son of God, Begotten of His Father before all worlds ; God of God, Light of Light, Very God of Very God, Begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father : By Whom all things were made ; Who for us men and for our salvation, came down from Heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, and was made Man ; And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried ; and the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures ; and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father ; And He shall come again with glory, to judge both the quick and the dead ; Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the HOLY GHOST, The Lord and Giver of Life, Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, Who spake by the Prophets. And I believe one Catholic and Apostolic Church. I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins ; And I look for the Resurrection of the dead, and the Life of the world to come. Amen.”

I Alleluia. 7s.

EDWARD J. HOPKINS, 1867.

When the Ev - er - last - ing Lord Waked Cre - a - tion by His Word,
Gathered earth from out the sea, Sowed the void, and lit the day;
Then, from all their ho - ly spheres, Mid the chime of morn - ing stars,
Shouts of praise the an - gels sang, Heaven with Al - le - lu - ias rang! A - men.

2 When the Everlasting Word,
Cradled Babe,—“Arm of the Lord,”
Led a brighter, holier day,
By the Star of Bethlehem’s ray;
Then again the heavenly throng,
Poured a flood of thrilling song,
“Praise the God of peace”—they sang,
Earth with Alleluias rang!

3 With a glad, harmonious voice,
All adoring hearts rejoice;
Heaven-taught, evermore, they raise
Hymns of faith, and love, and praise;
Till shall break that purest morn
When, the Earth and Heaven new-born,
Angel songs with saints’ shall blend
Alleluias without end. Amen.

JOHN HATTON, 1790.

A - wake, my soul! and, with the sun, Thy dai-ly stage of du - ty run ;

Shake off dull sloth, and joy - ful rise, To pay thy morn - ing sac - ri - fice.

2 Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart !
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who, all night long, unwearied sing
High praise to the eternal King.

3 If, on our daily course, our mind
Be set to hallow all we find,
New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.

3 All praise to Thee, who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me, whilst I slept;
Grant, Lord! when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless light partake.

4 The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we need to ask,
Room to deny ourselves, a road
To bring us daily nearer God.

4 Lord! I my vows to Thee renew;
Disperse my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with Thyself my spirit fill.

5 Only, O Lord! in Thy dear love
Fit us for perfect rest above;
And help us, this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray.

John Keble, 1827.

5 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In Thy sole glory may unite.

Thomas Ken, 1697, a.

New every morning is the love
Our waking and uprising prove;
Thro sleep and darkness safely brought,
Restored to life, and power, and thought.

2 New mercies each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.

My God! how endless is Thy love !
Thy gifts are every evening new;
And morning mercies from above
Gently distill, like early dew.

2 Thou spread'st the curtains of the night,
Great Guardian of my sleeping hours!
Thy sovereign word restores the light,
And quickens all my drowsy powers.

3 I yield my powers to Thy command;
To Thee I consecrate my days;
Perpetual blessings, from Thy hand,
Demand perpetual songs of praise.

Isaac Watts, 1709

2 Holy, holy, holy! all the saints adore Thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and Seraphim falling down before Thee,
Which wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.

3 Holy, holy, holy! though the darkness hide Thee,
Though the eye of sinful man Thy glory may not see;
Only Thou art holy: there is none beside Thee,
Perfect in power, in love, and purity.

4 Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
All Thy works shall praise Thy name, in earth, and sky, and sea:
Holy, holy, holy! merciful and mighty;
God in Three Persons, blessed Trinity! Amen.

God of the morning! at whose voice The cheer-ful sun makes haste to rise,

And like a gi-ant doth re-joice, To run his jour-ney thro' the skies;—

2 Oh! like the sun, may I fulfill
Th'appointed duties of the day;
With ready mind, and active will,
March on, and keep my heavenly way.

4 Lord! Thy commands are clean and pure,
Enlightening our beclouded eyes;
Thy threatenings just, Thy promise sure,
Thy gospel makes the simple wise.

3 But I shall rove and lose the race,
If God, my Sun, shall disappear,
And leave me in the world's wide maze
To follow every wandering star.

5 Give me Thy counsel for my guide,
And then receive me to Thy bliss;
All my desires and hopes beside
Are faint, and cold, compared with this.

- 2 Much of my time has run to waste,
And I, perhaps, am near my home;
But He forgives my follies past,
He gives me strength for days to come.
- 3 I lay my body down to sleep,—
Peace is the pillow for my head;
- 4 Thus, when the night of death shall come,
My flesh shall rest beneath the ground,
And wait Thy voice to rouse my tomb,
With sweet salvation in the sound.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

THOMAS TALLIS, 1565.

Glo - ry to Thee, my God! this night, For all the blessings of the light:

Keep me, oh! keep me, King of kings! Be-neath Thine own al - might - y wings.

- 2 Forgive me, Lord! for Thy dear Son,
The ill that I this day have done;
That with the world, myself, and Thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

- 3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed:
Teach me to die, that so I may
Rise glorious at the awful day.

- 4 Oh! may my soul on Thee repose,
And may sweet sleep mine eyelids close;
Sleep, that shall me more vig'rous make,
To serve my God when I awake.

- 5 When in the night I sleepless lie,
My soul with heavenly thoughts supply:
Let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
No powers of darkness me molest.

Thomas Ken, 1697, a.

- 9 O JESUS, Lord of heavenly grace,
Thou Brightness of Thy Father's face,
Thou Fountain of eternal light,
Whose beams disperse the shades of night!

- 2 Come, holy Sun of heavenly love!
Send down Thy radiance from above,
And to our inmost hearts convey
The Holy Spirit's cloudless ray.

- 3 Oh! hallowed thus be every day!
Let meekness be our morning ray,
And faithful love our noon-day light,
And hope our sunset, calm and bright.

- 4 O Christ! with each returning morn,
Thine image to our hearts is borne;
Oh! may we ever clearly see
Our Saviour and our God in Thee!

I love to steal a - while a - way From eve - ry cumbering care.
 And spend the hours of set - ting day In hum - ble, grate - ful prayer.

2 I love in solitude to shed
 The penitential tear,
 And all His promises to plead,
 Where none but God can hear.

3 I love to think on mercies past,
 And future good implore,
 And all my cares and sorrows cast
 On Him whom I adore.

4 I love by faith to take a view
 Of brighter scenes in heaven;
 The prospect doth my strength renew,
 While here by tempests driven.

5 Thus, when life's toilsome day is o'er,
 May its departing ray
 Be calm as this impressive hour,
 And lead to endless day!

Phæbe H. Brown, 1813.

THE twilight falls, the night is near,
 I fold my work away,
 And kneel to One who bends to hear
 The story of the day.

2 The old, old story; yet I kneel
 To tell it at Thy call,
 And cares grow lighter as I feel.
 That Jesus knows them all.

3 Thou knowest all: I lean my head;
 My weary eyelids close;
 Content and glad awhile to tread
 This path, since Jesus knows.

4 And He has loved me: all my heart
 With answering love is stirred,
 And every anguished pain and smart
 Finds healing in the word.

5 So here I lay me down to rest,
 As nightly shadows fall,
 And lean confiding on His breast
 Who knows and pities all.

HOW SWEET, thro long-remembered years,
 His mercies to recall, [fears,
 And, pressed with wants, and griefs, and
 To trust His love for all.

2 How sweet to look in thoughtful hope,
 Beyond this fading sky,
 And hear Him call His children up
 To His fair home on high.

3 Calmly the day forsakes our heaven,
 To dawn beyond the west;
 So let my soul, in life's last even,
 Retire to glorious rest.

Look on Thy children from on high, And hear us while we pray.

2 The sorrows of Thy servants, Lord!
Oh, do not Thou despise:
But let the incense of our prayers
Before Thy mercy rise.
The brightness of the coming night
Upon the darkness rolls;
With hopes of future glory chase
The shadows from our souls.

3 Slowly the rays of daylight fade;
So fade within the heart
The hopes in earthly love and joy
That, one by one, depart;
Slowly the bright stars, one by one,
Within the heavens shine;
Give us, O Lord! fresh hopes in heaven,
And trust in things divine.

2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou Who changest not, abide with me.

3 I need Thy presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

4 I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless:
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

5 Hold Thou Thy Cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me. Amen.

The first system of musical notation for the hymn 'Evening'. It consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff begins with a treble clef, a 3/4 time signature, and a piano (p) dynamic marking. The melody starts with a quarter note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, B4, and C5. The bass staff begins with a bass clef and accompaniment chords. The lyrics 'The day is gently sinking to a close, Fainter and' are written below the treble staff.

The third system of musical notation. The treble staff concludes the melody with a piano (p) dynamic marking. The lyrics 'Thou, Eternal Light of Light, be with us now. Amen.' are written below the treble staff.

2 Our changeful lives are ebbing to an end,
Onward to darkness and to death we tend;
O Conqueror of the grave, be Thou our Guide,
Be Thou our Light in death's dark eventide.

3 Thou, who in darkness walking didst appear
Upon the waves, and Thy disciples cheer,
When all is dark, may we behold Thee nigh,
And hear Thy voice, "Fear not, for it is I."

4 Come, Lord, in lonely days, when storms assail,
And earthly hopes and human succors fail,
Where Thou art present, darkness cannot be:
Midnight is glorious noon, O Lord, with Thee.

5 In that last sunset, when the stars shall fall,

3 Descend, celestial Dove!

2 He formed the deeps unknown
He gave the seas their bound;
The watery worlds are all His own,
And all the solid ground.

3 Come, worship at His throne;
Come, bow before the Lord:
We are His works, and not our own;
He formed us by His word.

4 To-day attend His voice,
Nor dare provoke His rod;
Come, like the people of His choice,

Isaac Watts, 1719.

27 STAND up, and bless the Lord,
Ye people of His choice!
Stand up, and bless the Lord, your God,
With heart, and soul, and voice.

2 God is our strength and song,
And His salvation ours:
Then be His love in Christ proclaimed,
With all our ransomed powers.

Once more, my soul! the ris - ing day Sa - lutes thy wak - ing eyes;

Once more, my voice! thy trib - ute pay To Him that rules the skies.

2 Night unto night His name repeats,
The day renews the sound;
Wide as the heaven, on which He sits,
To turn the seasons round.

My sins would rouse His wrath to flame,
And yet His wrath delays.

3 'Tis He supports my mortal frame,—
My tongue shall speak His praise;

2 With the morning's early ray,
While the shades of night depart,
Let Thy beams of light convey
Joy and gladness to my heart:
Now o'er all my steps preside,

Open fault, and secret sin.

3 Soon, for me, the light of day
Shall for ever pass away;
Then, from sin and sorrow free,
Take me, Lord! to dwell with Thee.

PETER RITTER, 1792.

Sun of my soul, Thou Saviour dear! It is not night, if Thou be near;

Oh! may no earth-born cloud a - rise, To hide Thee from Thy servant's eyes!

2 When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
For ever on my Saviour's breast!

2 Soon as the light of morning broke
O'er island, continent, or deep,
Thy far-spread family awoke,
The Lord's day round the world, to keep.

3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without Thee I cannot live;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without Thee I dare not die.

3 From east to west, the sun surveyed,
From north to south, adoring throngs;
And still, when evening stretched her shade,
The stars came out to hear their songs.

4 If some poor wandering child of Thine
Have spurned to-day the voice divine,
Now, Lord! the gracious work begin;
Let him no more lie down in sin.

4 And not a prayer, a tear, a sigh,
Hath failed this day some suit to gain;
To those in trouble Thou wert nigh:
Not one hath sought Thy face in vain.

5 Watch by the sick; enrich the poor,
With blessings from Thy boundless store;
Be every mourner's sleep to-night,
Like infant's slumbers, pure and light!

5 Yet one prayer more!—and be it one,
In which both heaven and earth accord
Fulfill Thy promise to Thy Son;
Let all that breathe call Jesus Lord!

James Montgomery, 1853.

6 Come near and bless us when we wake,
Ere through the world our way we take;
Till, in the ocean of Thy love,
We lose ourselves in heaven above.

John Keble, 1827.

MILLIONS within Thy courts have met,
Millions, this day, before Thee bowed;
Their faces Zion-ward were set,
Vows with their lips to Thee they vowed.

35

Away from every mortal care,
Away from earth, our souls retreat;
We leave this worthless world afar,
And wait and worship near Thy seat.

2 Father! my soul would still abide
Within Thy temple, near Thy side;
But, if my feet must hence depart,
Still keep Thy dwelling in my heart.

Great God, this sa-cred day of Thine Demands the soul's col-lect-ed powers:
 Glad-ly we now to Thee re-sign These sol-emu, con-se-creat-ed hours:
 O may our souls a-dor-ing own The grace that calls us to Thy throne.

2 All-seeing God! Thy piercing eye
 Can every secret thought explore;
 May worldly cares our bosoms fly,
 And where Thou art intrude no more:
 O may Thy grace our spirits move,
 And fix our minds on things above.

3 Thy Spirit's powerful aid impart,
 And bid Thy word, with life divine,
 Engage the ear and warm the heart:
 Then shall the day indeed be Thine;
 Then shall our souls adoring own
 The grace that calls us to Thy throne.

Anne Steele, 1760.

2 And when, to heaven's all glorious King,
 My morning sacrifice I bring,
 And, mourning o'er my guilt and shame,
 Ask mercy in my Saviour's name,
 Then, Jesus! cleanse me with Thy blood,
 And be my Advocate with God.

3 When each day's scenes and labors close,
 And wearied nature seeks repose,
 With pard'ning mercy richly blessed,
 Guard me, my Saviour! while I rest;
 And, as each morning sun shall rise,
 Oh! lead me onward to the skies.

37

WHEN, streaming from the eastern skies,
 The morning light salutes mine eyes,
 O Sun of righteousness divine!
 On me with beams of mercy shine;
 Chase the dark clouds of guilt away,
 And turn my darkness into day.

4 And, at my life's last setting sun,
 My conflicts o'er, my labors done,
 Jesus! Thy heavenly radiance shed,
 To cheer and bless my dying bed;
 And, from death's gloom, my spirit raise,
 To see Thy face, and sing Thy praise.

Marcato.

This is the day the Lord hath made; He calls the hours His own:
Let heaven re-joice, let earth be glad, And praise sur-round the throne.

2 To-day He rose and left the dead,
And Satan's empire fell;
To-day the saints His triumph spread,
And all His wonders tell.

3 Hosanna! in the highest strains,
The church on earth can raise!
The highest heavens, in which He reigns,
Shall give Him nobler praise.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

39

With joy we hail the sacred day,
Which God hath called His own;
With joy the summons we obey
To worship at His throne.

2 Thy chosen temple, Lord! how fair!
Where willing vot'ries throng,
To breathe the humble, fervent prayer,
And pour the choral song.

3 Spirit of grace! Oh! deign to dwell
Within Thy church below;
Make her in holiness excel,
With pure devotion glow.

4 Let peace within her walls be found;
Let all her sons unite,
To spread with grateful zeal around
Her clear and shining light.

Harriet Auber, 1829.

How sweetly breaks the Sabbath dawn
Along the eastern skies!
So, when the night of time hath gone,
Eternity shall rise.

2 What quiet reigns o'er earth and sea,
Through all the silent air!
So calm may we, this Sabbath, be,
And free from worldly care.

3 Thus let Thy peace, O Lord! pervade
Our bosoms, all our days;
And let each passing hour be made
A herald of Thy praise.

Edwin F. Hatfield, 1840.

AND now another week begins,
This day we call the Lord's;
This day He rose, who bore our sins,—
For so His word records.

2 Come, then, ye saints! and grateful sing
Of Christ, our risen Lord,—
Of Christ, the everlasting King,—
Of Christ, th' incarnate Word.

3 Hail! mighty Saviour! Thee we hail!
Who fillest the throne above;
Till heart and flesh together fail,
We'll sing Thy matchless love.

The Lord's Day.

AGAIN the Lord of life and light
Awakes the kindling ray,
Unseals the eyelids of the morn,
And pours increasing day.

2 Oh! what a night was that, which wrapt
A guilty world in gloom!
Oh! what a sun which broke, this day,
Triumphant from the tomb!

3 The powers of darkness leagued in vain
To bind our Lord in death;
He shook their kingdom when He fell,
With His expiring breath.

4 And now His conquering chariot wheels
Ascend the lofty skies;
While, broke beneath His powerful cross,
Death's iron sceptre lies.

5 This day be grateful homage paid,
And loud hosannas sung;
Let gladness dwell in every heart,
And praise on every tongue.

6 Ten thousand differing lips shall join
To hail this welcome morn,
Which scatters blessings, from its wings,
On nations yet unborn.

3 No rude alarms of raging foes;
No cares to break the long repose;
No midnight shade, no clouded sun,
But sacred, high, eternal noon.

SWEET is the light of Sabbath-eve,
And soft the sunbeams lingering there.
For these blest hours, the world I leave,

Peace shines and smiles on all below,—
The plain, the stream, the wood, the hill,—
All fair with evening's setting glow.

2 Lo! it dawns, the Sabbath morning
 Streams with radiance all divine;
 Sanctity Thy courts adorning,

That did our hunger stay;
The manna, by Thine angels shed,
Around our desert way.

In evening shade, shall close,—
And all its vanity and strife

WHEN the worn spirit wants repose
And sighs her God to seek,
How sweet to hail the evening's close
That ends the weary week!

2 How welcome is the early dawn
That opens on the sight,
When first the soul-reviving morn
Sheds forth new rays of light!

3 Blest day! thine hours too soon will cease,
Yet, while they gently roll,
Breathe, heavenly Spirit, Source of peace,
A Sabbath o'er my soul.

4 Soon will my pilgrimage be done,
The world's long week be o'er,
That Sabbath dawn which needs no sun,
That day which fades no more.

GOD of the sunlight hours! how sad
Would evening shadows be,
Or night, in deeper sable clad,—
If aught were dark to Thee!

2 How mournfully that golden gleam
Would touch the thoughtful heart,
If, with its soft, retiring beam,
We saw Thy love depart!

3 But, though the gathering gloom may hide
Those gentle rays awhile,
Yet they, who in Thy house abide,
Shall ever share Thy smile.

Though every page be bright;
On Thine, still open, we repose
With more intense delight.

4 Thy promises are true;
Thy grace is ever new;
There fixed, Thy church shall ne'er remove;
Thy saints, with holy fear,
Shall in Thy courts appear,
And sing Thine everlasting love.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

'Tis heaven begun below
To hear Christ's praises flow
In Zion, where His name is known:
What will it be above
To sing redeeming love,
And cast our crowns before His throne!

2 Oh, what sweet company
We then shall hear and see!
What harmony will there abound!
When souls unnumbered sing
The praise of Zion's King,
Nor one dissenting voice is found!

3 With everlasting joy,
Such as will never cloy,
We shall be filled, nor wish for more;
Bright as meridian day,
Calm as the evening ray,
Full as a sea without a shore.

4 Till that blest period come,
Zion shall be my home;
And may I never thence remove,
Till from the church below
To that on high I go,
And there commune in perfect love.

Come, we that love the Lord! And let our joys be known:

Join in a song with sweet ac - cord, And thus surround the throne.

2 Let those refuse to sing,
That never knew our God;
But children of the heavenly King
May speak their joys abroad.

3 The men of grace have found
Glory begun below;
Celestial fruits on earthly ground
From faith and hope may grow.

4 The hill of Zion yields
A thousand sacred sweets
Before we reach the heavenly fields,
Or walk the golden streets.

5 Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry;
We're marching thro' Immanuel's ground,
To fairer worlds on high.

Thee, Thee we praise, O God! and own That Thou, the Lord, art God a-lone;
Thy praise su-preme all na-ture sings. E-ter-nal Fa-ther! King of kings!

2 All angels, and the cherubim,—
The heavenly host,—the seraphim,—
Cease not to cry,—“Be Thou adored,
O holy, holy, holy Lord!”

3 The heavens and earth are full of Thee,—
Thy glory, power, and majesty;
Th’ apostles, prophets, martyrs, raise
To Thee their loudest songs of praise.

4 Thy holy church, o’er all the earth,
Exulting owns, with hallowed mirth,—
Infinite majesty is Thine,

5 Thee, too, O Christ! they all confess,—
Thee, King of glory! Thee they bless;
The Father’s Son Thou art alone,—
Partaker of th’ eternal throne.

 { Glo-ry to our heav'nly King.—The God of truth and grace: } Join we, then, with sweet accord,

All in one thanksgiving join: Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord! E-ternal praise be Thine.

2 Thee the first born sons of light,
 In choral symphonies,
 Praise by day, day without night,
 And never, never cease:
 Angels, and archangels, all
 Praise the mystic Three in One,
 Sing, and stop, and gaze, and fall,
 O'erwhelmed before Thy throne.

3 Vying with the heavenly choir
 Who chant Thy praise above,
 We on eagle's wings aspire—
 The wings of faith and love:
 Thee they sing with glory crowned;
 We extol the slaughtered Lamb:
 Lower if our voices sound,
 Our theme is still the same.

4 Father, God! Thy love we praise,
 Which gave Thy Son to die:
 Jesus, full of truth and grace,
 Alike we glorify:
 Spirit, Comforter Divine!
 Praise by all to Thee be given,
 Till we in full chorus join,
 And earth is turned to heaven.

Rise, my soul! and stretch thy wings,
 Thy better portion trace;
 Rise, from transitory things,
 Tow'rd's heaven, thy native place
 Sun, and moon, and stars decay,
 Time shall soon this earth remove;
 Rise, my soul! and haste away,
 To seats prepared above.

2 Rivers to the ocean run,
 Nor stay in all their course;
 Fire ascending seeks the sun;
 Both speed them to their source:
 So a soul, that's born of God,
 Pants to view His glorious face;
 Upward tends to His abode,
 To rest in His embrace.

3 Cease, ye pilgrims! cease to mourn,
 Press onward to the prize;
 Soon our Saviour will return,
 Triumphant in the skies:
 Yet a season,—and you know,
 Happy entrance will be given,
 All our sorrows left below,
 And earth exchanged for heaven.

To Him that chose us first, Before the world began; To Him that bore the curse To

2 The Father's love shall run
Through our immortal songs;
We bring to God, the Son,
Hosannas on our tongues:
Our lips address the Spirit's name,
With equal praise, and zeal the same.

3 Let every saint above,
And angel round the throne,
For ever bless and love
The sacred Three in One:
Thus heaven shall raise His honors high,
When earth and time grow old and die.
Isaac Watts, 1709.

2 To God, the Son, belongs
Immortal glory too,
Who bought us with His blood
From everlasting woe:
And now He lives, and now He reigns,
And sees the fruit of all His pains.

3 To God the Spirit's name,
Immortal worship give,
Whose new-creating power
Makes the dead sinner live:
His work completes the great design,

There faith prevails and love adores.

God of my life! through all my days, My grateful powers shall sound Thy praise;
The song shall wake with opening light, And warble to the si - lent night.

2 When anxious cares would break my rest,
And griefs would tear my throbbing breast,
Thy tuneful praises, raised on high,
Shall check the murmur and the sigh.

3 When death o'er nature shall prevail,
And all its powers of language fail;
Joy through my swimming eyes shall break,
And mean the thanks I cannot speak.

4 But, oh! when that last conflict's o'er,
And I am chained to flesh no more,—
With what glad accents shall I rise

Some thankful tribute to Thine ear;
And every setting sun shall see
New works of duty done for Thee.

3 Let distant times and nations raise

Vast and unsearchable Thy ways!
Vast and immortal be Thy praise!

While all th' adoring thrones around,
His boundless mercy sing:
Let every listening saint above
Wake all the tuneful soul of love,
And touch the sweetest string.

3 Let man, by nobler passions swayed,
The feeling heart, the judging head,
In heavenly praise employ;
Spread His tremendous name around
Till heaven's broad arch rings back the sound,
The general burst of joy.

Andante.

I love my God, but with no love of mine, For I have none to give; I love Thee, Lord, but all the love is Thine,

For by Thy life I live; I am as nothing, and rejoice to be Emptied and lost, and swallow'd up in Thee.

2 Thou, Lord, alone art all Thy children need,
 And there is none beside;
 From Thee the streams of blessedness proceed,
 In Thee the blest abide;
 Fountain of life and all abounding grace,
 Our source, our centre, and our dwelling-place.

2 God's free mercy streameth
Over all the world,
And His banner gleameth
Everywhere unfurled:
Broad and deep and glorious,
As the heaven above,
Shines in might victorious
His eternal Love.

3 We will never doubt Thee,
Though Thou veil Thy light:
Life is dark without Thee;
Death with Thee is bright:
Light of light! shine o'er us
On our pilgrim way,
Go Thou still before us
To the endless day.

Ye ho - ly souls! in God re - joice; Your Maker's praise be - comes your voice;

The first system of musical notation for the hymn, featuring a treble and bass clef with a 4/4 time signature. The melody is in G major and the bass line provides harmonic support.

Great is your theme, your songs be new; Sing of His name, His word, His ways,

The second system of musical notation, continuing the melody and bass line.

His works of na - ture and of grace;—How wise and ho - ly, just and true!

The third system of musical notation, concluding the first part of the hymn.

2 Justice and truth He ever loves;
And the whole earth His goodness proves;
His word the heavenly arches spread;
How wide they shine from north to south!
And, by the spirit of His mouth,
Were all the starry armies made.

3 I'll praise my Maker with my breath;
And, when my voice is lost in death,
Praise shall employ my nobler powers:

In my daily life to show,
Constant love to friend and foe,

Sunk where death's dark ocean lies,
To worlds of glory may we rise,
Lighted, Lord, by Thee!

When I begin Thy praise,
Where will the growing numbers end,—
The numbers of Thy grace?

And, since I knew Thy graces first,
I speak Thy glories more.

Of the celestial road;
And march, with courage, in Thy strength,
To see my Father God.
- 4 When I am filled with sore distress
For some surprising sin,
I'll plead Thy perfect righteousness,
And mention none but Thine.

And psalms of honor sing;
The Lord's a God of boundless might,—
The whole creation's King.
- 3 Come, and with humble souls adore;
Come, kneel before His face:
Oh! may the creatures of His power
Be children of His grace!

And waits for your request;
Come, lest He rouse His wrath, and swear,
"Ye shall not see my rest."

2 Praise, my soul, the God that sought thee,
Wretched wanderer, far astray;
Found thee lost, and kindly brought thee
From the paths of death away:
Praise, with love's devoutest feeling,

And, the light of hope revealing,
Bade the blood-stained cross appear.

3 Lord, this bosom's ardent feeling
Vainly would my lips express;

2 See where it shines in Jesus' face,—
The brightest image of His grace!
God, in the person of His Son,
Has all His mightiest works outdone.

3 The spacious earth and spreading flood
Proclaim the wise, the powerful God;
And Thy rich glories from afar
Sparkle in every rolling star.

4 But in His looks a glory stands,
The noblest labor of Thy hands;
The pleasing lustre of His eyes
Outshines the wonders of the skies.

5 Grace,—'tis a sweet, a charming theme;
My thoughts rejoice at Jesus' name:
Ye angels! dwell upon the sound;
Ye heavens! reflect it to the ground.

6 Oh! may I live to reach the place,
Where He unveils His lovely face,
Where all His beauties you behold,
And sing His name to harps of gold.

Isaac Watts, 1707.

2 In Thy dear cross a grace is found,—
It flows from every streaming wound,—
Whose power our inbred sin controls,
Breaks the firm bond, and frees our souls.

3 Thou didst create the stars of night;
Yet Thou hast veiled in flesh Thy light,
Hast deigned a mortal form to wear,
A mortal's painful lot to bear.

4 When Thou didst hang upon the tree;
The quaking earth acknowledged Thee;
When Thou didst there yield up Thy breath,
The world grew dark as shades of death.

5 Now in the Father's glory high,
Great Conqu'ror! never more to die,
Us by Thy mighty power defend,
And reign through ages without end.

MORTALS! awake, with angels join,
And chant the solemn lay;
Joy, love, and gratitude, combine
To hail th' auspicious day.

And sweet seraphic fire
Through all the shining regions ran,
And strung and tuned the lyre.

3 Swift, through the vast expanse, it flew,
And loud the echo rolled;
The theme, the song, the joy was new,
'Twas more than heaven could hold.

4 Down to the portals of the sky
Th' impetuous torrent ran;
And angels rushed, with eager joy,
To bear the news to man.

It came upon the midnight clear, That glorious song of old, From angels bending near the earth, To touch their harps of gold: "Peace to the earth, good-will to men, From heaven's all-gracious King;" The world in solemn stillness lay, To hear the angels sing!

- 2 Still through the cloven skies they came
With peaceful wings unfurled;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world;
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o'er its Babel-sounds,
The blessed angels sing.
- 3 Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the angel-strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;
And man, at war with man, hears not
The love-song which they bring:
Oh! hush the noise, ye men of strife,
And hear the angels sing!
- 4 And ye beneath life's crushing load
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the clumbing way
With painful steps and slow,
Look now! for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing;
Oh! rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing!
- 5 For lo! the days are hast'ning on
By prophet-bards foretold,
When with the ever-circling years
Comes round the age of gold;
When peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendors fling,
And all the world give back the song
Which now the angels' sing.

The happy land shall everywhere
With endless peace abound.

2 Although by stars Thou dost not lead
Thy servants now below,
Thy Holy Spirit, when they need,
Will show them how to go.

6 To Him shall every king on earth
His humble homage pay;
And differing nations gladly join
To own His righteous sway.

3 As yet we know Thee but in part:
But still we trust Thy word,
That blessed are the true in heart,
For they shall see the Lord.

7 For He shall set the needy free,
When they for succor cry;
Shall save the helpless and the poor
And all their wants supply.

4 O Saviour, give us then Thy grace,
To make us pure in heart,
That we may see Thee face to face
Hereafter, as Thou art.

As with glad-ness men of old Did the guid-ing star be-hold; }
 As with joy they hailed its light, Lead-ing on-ward, beaming bright; }

So, most gracious Lord, may we Ev-er-more be led to Thee.

2 As with joyful steps they sped
 To that lowly manger-bed;
 There to bend the knee before
 Him whom heaven and earth adore;
 So may we with willing feet
 Ever seek the mercy-seat.

3 As they offered gifts most rare
 At that manger rude and bare
 So may we with holy joy,
 Pure and free from sin's alloy,
 All our costliest treasures bring,
 Christ! to Thee, our heavenly King.

4 Holy Jesus! every day
 Keep us in the narrow way:
 And, when earthly things are past,
 Bring our ransomed souls at last
 Where they need no star to guide,
 Where no clouds Thy glory hide.

5 In the heavenly country bright,
 Need they no created light:
 Thou its Light, its Joy, its Crown,
 Thou its Sun which goes not down;
 There for ever may we sing
 Alleluias to our King.

William C. Dix, 1859.

I 77 .

Ring again, ye starry chime!
 'Tis the fullness of the time;
 Shadows of the ages fly,
 Love's bright banner fills the sky;
 Earth's new birthday tell abroad,
 Shout for joy, ye sours of God!

2 Let the Israel of faith
 Gather now the spoils of death;—
 Joy, as when the reapers come
 Bearing high the harvest home.
 Broken is th'oppressor's rod,
 Burned the robes of war and blood.

3 Unto us the Child is born,
 Unto us is given the Son;
 His shall throne and kingdom be,
 Heir of all Eternity.—
 Let Thy government increase
 Just and Wondrous Prince of Peace!

4 Counsel! Father! Mighty God!
 Thou shalt ever be adored;
 Thou didst lay Thy glory down,
 Thou shalt wear the ages' crown!
 Let us all that glory see,
 Through Thy pure nativity.

What grace, O Lord! and beau - ty shone A - round Thy steps be - low!

What pa - tient love was seen in all Thy life and death of woe!

2 For, ever on Thy burdened heart
A weight of sorrow hung;
Yet no ungentle, murmuring word
Escaped Thy silent tongue.

3 Thy foes might hate, despise, revile,
Thy friends unfaithful prove;
Unwearied in forgiveness still,
Thy heart could only love.

4 Oh! give us hearts to love like Thee;
Like Thee, O Lord! to grieve
Far more for others' sins, than all
The wrongs that we receive.

Edward Denny, 1839.

4 No, facing all its frowns or smiles,
Like Him, obedient still,
We homeward press, thro storm or calm,
To Zion's blesséd hill.

5 In tents we dwell amid the waste,
Nor turn aside to roam
In folly's paths; nor seek our rest,
Where Jesus had no home.

6 Dead to the world, with Him who died
To win our hearts, our love,
We, risen with our risen Head,
In spirit dwell above.

7 By faith, His boundless glories there
Our wondering eyes behold;
Those glories which eternal years
Shall never all unfold.

Edward Denny, 1839.

I 79

A PILGRIM through this lonely world,
The blesséd Saviour passed;
A mourner all His life was He,
A dying Lamb at last.

2 That tender heart that felt for all,
For all its life-blood gave;
It found on earth no resting-place,
Save only in the grave.

3 Such was our Lord; and shall we fear
The cross with all its scorn?
Or love a faithless, evil world,
That wreathed His brow with thorn?

I 80

THINE arm, O Lord, in days of old
Was strong to heal and save:
It triumphed o'er disease and death,
O'er darkness and the grave.

2 To Thee they went, the blind, the dumb,
The palsied and the lame,
The leper with his tainted life,
The sick with fevered frame.

3 And lo! Thy touch brought life and health,
Gave speech, and strength, and sight;
And youth renewed and frenzy calmed
Owned Thee, the Lord of Light:

4 And now, O Lord, be near to bless,
Almighty as of yore,
In crowded street, by restless couch,
As by Genesareth's shore.

5 Be Thou our great Deliverer still,
Thou Lord of life and death;
Restore and quicken, soothe and bless
With Thine almighty breath.

6 To hands that work and eyes that see
Give wisdom's heavenly lore,
That whole and sick, and weak and strong
May praise Thee evermore.

Edward H. Plumptre, 1865.

Thou art the Way: to Thee alone
From sin and death we flee;
And he who would the Father seek,
Must seek Him, Lord, by Thee.

2 Thou art the Truth: Thy word alone
True wisdom can impart;
Thou only canst inform the mind,
And purify the heart.

3 Thou art the Life: the rending tomb-
Proclaims Thy conquering arm;
And those who put their trust in Thee
Nor death nor hell shall harm.

4 Thou art the Way, the Truth, the Life:
Grant us that Way to know;
That Truth to keep, that Life to win,
Whose joys eternal flow.

Such deference to Thy Father's will,
Such love and meekness, so divine,

2 'Tis midnight,—and, from all removed, Immanuel wrestles lone with fears;

3 'Tis midnight and for others' guilt The Man of sorrows weeps in blood; Yet He, who hath in anguish knelt, Is not forsaken by His God.

3 He died that we might be forgiven, He died to make us good, That we might go at last to heaven, Saved by His precious Blood.

4 There was no other good enough To pay the price of sin; He only, could unlock the gate Of heaven, and let us in.

Ride on! ride on in maj - es - ty! Hark! all the tribes Ho - san - na cry;

O Saviovr meek, pur - sue Thy road With palms and scatter'd garments strew'd.

2 Ride on! ride on in majesty!
In lowly pomp, ride on to die:
O Christ, Thy triumphs now begin
O'er captive death and conquer'd sin.

3 Christ had His joys: but they were not
The joys the son of pleasure boasts;
Ah no! 't was when His spirit sought
Thy will, Thy glory, God of hosts!

3 Ride on! ride on in majesty!
The angel armies of the sky
Look down with sad and wond'ring eyes
To see th' approaching Sacrifice.

4 Christ had His joys: and so hath he
Who feels the Spirit in his heart—
Who yields, O God, his all to Thee,
And loves Thy name for what Thou art.

4 Ride on! ride on in majesty!
The last and fiercest strife is nigh:
The Father on His sapphire throne
Awaits His own anointed Son.

5 Christ had His foes: the prince of hell
With all his legions sought His death!
See! human hearts with malice swell,
And murder feign affection's breath!

5 Ride on! ride on in majesty!
In lowly pomp, ride on to die;
Bow Thy meek Head to mortal pain,
Then take, O God, Thy power, and reign.

6 Christ had His foes: and so, if thou

And when His trembling followers fled,
In His dark hour of agony.

7 Christ had His friends; His eye could

Through the long train of coming years,
The chosen children of His grace,
The full reward of all His tears!

2 Christ had His sorrows: so must thou

Adore the sovereignty of God.

2 Saviour, for our pardon sue,
When our sins Thy paings renew,
For we know not what we do;
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

3 Oh, may we, who mercy need,
Be like Thee in heart and deed,
When with wrong our spirits bleed:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

4 Jesus, pitying the sighs
Of the thief, who near Thee dies,
Promising him Paradise:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

5 May we in our guilt and shame,
Still Thy love and mercy claim,
Calling humbly on Thy name:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

6 Jesus, loving to the end
Her whose heart Thy sorrows rend,
And Thy dearest human friend:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

7 May we all Thy loved ones be,
All one holy family,
Loving for the love of Thee:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

8 Jesus, whelmed in fears unknown,
With our evil left alone,
While no light from heaven is shown:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

9 When we vainly seem to pray,
And our hope seems far away,
In the darkness be our stay:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

10 Jesus, in Thy thirst and pain,
While Thy wounds Thy life-blood drain,
Thirsting more our love to gain:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

11 Jesus,—all our ransom paid,
All Thy Father's will obeyed,—
By Thy sufferings perfect made:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

12 Jesus,—all Thy labor vast,
All Thy woe and conflict past—
Yielding up Thy soul at last:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

13 May Thy life and death supply
Grace to live and grace to die,
Grace to reach the home on high:
Hear us, Holy Jesus. Amen.

Bound up - on th' accursed tree, Faint and bleeding, who is He? By the eyes so pale and dim, Streaming blood, and writhing limb, By the flesh with scourges torn, By the crown of twisted thorn, By the side so deep-ly pierced, By the baffled, burning thirst,

By the drooping, death-dew'd brow; Son of Man, 'tis Thou, 'tis Thou! A-men.

2 Bound upon th' accursed tree,
Dread and awful, who is He?
By the sun at noonday pale,
Shivering rocks, and rending veil,
By the earth enwrapt in gloom,
By the sauits who burst their tomb,
Eden promised ere He died
To the felon at His side;
Lord! our suppliant knees we bow!
Son of God! 'tis Thou! 'tis Thou!

3 Bound upon th' accursed tree,
Dread and awful, who is He?
By the prayer for them that slew,
"Lord! they know not what they do!"
By the spoiled and empty grave,
By the souls He died to save,
By the conquest He hath won,
By the saints before His throne,
By the rainbow round His brow,
Son of God! 'tis Thou! 'tis Thou! Amen.

{ O sa - cred Head, now wounded, With grief and shame weigh'd down, }
 { Now scorn - ly sur - round - ed With thorns, Thine on - ly crown; }

O sa - cred Head, what glo - ry, What bliss, till now was Thine!

Yet, though despised and go - ry, I joy to call Thee mine.

2 What Thou, my Lord! hast suffered
 Was all for sinners' gain;
 Mine, mine was the transgression,
 But Thine the deadly pain:
 Lo! here I fall, my Saviour!
 'Tis I deserve Thy place;
 Look on me with Thy favor,
 Vouchsafe to me Thy grace.

3 What language shall I borrow
 To thank Thee, dearest Friend!
 For this Thy dying sorrow,
 Thy pity without end?
 Oh! make me Thine for ever;
 And should I fainting be,
 Lord! let me never, never,
 Outlive my love to Thee!

4 And, when I am departing,
 Oh! part not Thou from me!
 When mortal pangs are darting,
 Come, Lord! and set me free;
 And, when my heart must languish
 Amidst the final throes,
 Release me from mine anguish,
 By Thine own pain and woe.

5 Be near me when I'm dying,
 Oh! show Thy cross to me!
 And, for my succor flying,
 Come, Lord! and set me free!
 These eyes new faith receiving,
 From Jesus shall not move;
 For He, who dies believing,
 Dies safely, through Thy love.

Turn not from His griefs a - way; Learn of Je - sus Christ to pray.

2 Follow to the judgment-hall,
View the Lord of life arraigned;
Oh! the wormwood and the gall!
Oh! the pangs His soul sustained!
Shun not suffering, shame, or loss;
Learn of Him to bear the cross.

3 Calv'ry's mournful mountain climb;
There, adoring at His feet,
Mark that miracle of time,
God's own sacrifice complete:
"It is finished," hear Him cry;
Learn of Jesus Christ to die.

4 Early hasten to the tomb,

All is solitude and gloom;—
Who hath taken Him away?
Christ is ris'n!—He meets our eyes;
Saviour! teach us so to rise.

NEAR the tomb where Christ hath been
Weeping stands the Magdalene;
With the two disciples, she Wonders where her Lord can be:
Looking in, they see the bed
Where the Lord hath laid His head.

2 Stooping down they see no more
Than the clothes which wrapp'd Him o'er;
Clothes which wound His feet, His brow,
Death's white vestments, useless now.
Two depart: but love and faith
Stronger are than sight, than death.

3 He was here: then she will wait
Watching early, watching late.
Where her Jesus last was seen,
There will wait the Magdalene.
Looking in with streaming eyes,
Angels twain she there espies.

4 Hark, with glad accord they cry,
Jesus lives, no more to die:
Thy dear Lord abides not here;
He is risen; do not fear;
Mary, wipe thy tears away,
See the place where Jesus lay,

SURELY Christ thy griefs hath borne;
Weeping soul! no longer mourn;
View Him bleeding on the tree,
Pouring out His life for thee:
There thine every sin He bore:
Weeping soul! lament no more.

5 Turning round she sees Him stand,
In the garden close at hand:
"Mary!" 'tis His accent now:
"Master; It is Thou, 'tis Thou!"—
We, with her, oh Christ adore,
Lord and Master, evermore!

2 Cast thy guilty soul on Him,
Find Him mighty to redeem:
At His feet thy burden lay,
Look thy doubts and cares away:
Now, by faith, the Son embrace,
Plead His promise, trust His grace.

L. J. F. HEROLD, 1838.

Wide ye heav'nly gates! unfold, Clos'd no more by death and sin; Lo! the conqu'ring Lord behold!
 D. S. — Hark again! the answering choir

Let the King of glo-ry in." Hark! th' angelic host inquire,—"Who is He, the mighty King?"
 Thus in strains of triumph sing:—

2 "He, whose powerful arm alone
 On His foes destruction hurled;
 He, who hath the vict'ry won,
 He, who saved a ruined world:

He, who God's pure law fulfilled,
 Jesus, the incarnate Word;
 He, whose truth with blood was sealed;
 He is heaven's all-glorious Lord."

207 Victory. 8s & 4.

G. P. A. PALESTRINA.

The strife is o'er, the bat-tle done; The vic-to-ry of life is won;

The song of tri-umph has be-gun. Al-le-lu-ia!

2 The powers of death have done their worst,
But Christ their legions hath dispersed:
Let shouts of holy joy outburst,
Alleluia!

4 He closed the yawning gates of hell,
The bars from heaven's high portals fell;
Let hymns of praise His triumphs tell!
Alleluia!

3 The three sad days are quickly sped;
He rises glorious from the dead:
All glory to our risen Head!
Alleluia!

5 Lord! by the stripes that wounded Thee,
From Death's dread sting Thy servants free,
That we may live and sing to Thee,
Alleluia!

Th'e-ter-nal gates lift up their heads, The doors are o-pened wide;

The King of glo-ry is gone up Un-to His Fa-ther's side.

The Ascension.

2 Thou art gone in before us, Lord,
Thou hast prepared a place,
That we may be where now Thou art,
And look upon Thy face.

3 And ever on Thine earthly path
A gleam of glory lies;
A light still breaks behind the cloud
That veils Thee from our eyes.

4 Lift up our thoughts, lift up our songs,
And let Thy grace be given,
That while we linger yet below,
Our hearts may be in heaven;

5 That where Thou art at God's right hand,
Our hope, our love may be:
Dwell in us now, that we may dwell
For evermore in Thee.

Come, ye faithful, raise the anthem; Cleave the skies with shouts of praise;

Sing to Him who brought sal - va - tion, Won - drous in His works and ways:

God e - ter - nal, Word In - carnate, Whom the heav'n of heav'n obeys. A - men.

2 Ere He raised the lofty mountains,
Formed the sea, or spread the sky,
Lovè eternal, free and boundless,
Moved the Lord of life to die;
Fore-ordained the Prince of princes
For the throne of Calvary.

3 Now above the sapphire pavement,
High in unapproachèd light,
Lo! He lives and reigns for ever,

8

Victor after hard-won fight,
Where the song of the redeemed
Rings unceasing day and night.

4 Trust Him then, ye fearful pilgrims;
Who shall pluck you from His hand?
Pledged He stands for your salvation,—
Pledged to give the promised land,—
Where, among the ransomed nations
Ye, too, round His throne shall stand.

f “Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates! Ye ev - er - lasting doors! give way.”

Copyright, 1880, by Biglow & Main.

2 “Loose all your bars of massy light,
And wide unfold th’ ethereal scene;
He claims these mansions as His right;
Receive the King of glory in.”
“Who is the King of glory?—who?”
“The Lord, that all our foes o’ercame,
World, sin, and death, and hell o’erthrew;
And Jesus is the Conqueror’s name.”

3 Lo! His triumphal chariot waits,
And angels chant the solemn lay:—
“Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates!
Ye everlasting doors! give way.”
“Who is the King of glory?—who?”—
“The Lord, of glorious power possessed;
The King of saints and angels too;
God over all, for ever blessed.”

2 Who is the King of Glory, who?
The Lord for strength renowned;

In battle mighty; o'er His foes
Eternal Victor crowned.

3 Lift up your heads, ye gates; unfold,
In state to entertain

The King of Glory! see, He comes
With all His shining train.

4 Who is the King of Glory, who?
The Lord of hosts renowned;

Of glory He alone is King,
Who is with glory crowned. Amen.

Musical notation for the first system, featuring a treble and bass clef with a 2/2 time signature. The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: Rejoice! the Lord is King!—Your God and King-a-dore; Mortals! give thanks, and sing,

Musical notation for the second system, continuing the melody and bass line. The lyrics are: And triumph evermore: Lift up your hearts, lift up your voice, Rejoice! again, I say—rejoice!

2 His kingdom cannot fail;
He rules o'er earth and heaven;
The keys of death and hell
Are to our Jesus given;

Lift up your hearts,—lift up your voice,
Rejoice! again, I say,—rejoice!

3 Rejoice in glorious hope;
Jesus, the Judge, shall come,
And take His servants up
To their eternal home;

We soon shall hear th' archangel's voice,
The trump of God shall sound,—rejoice!

{ Jesus comes. His conflict over.— Comes to claim His great reward; }
 { Angels round the Victor hover, Crowding to behold their Lord; } Haste, ye saints! your tribute bring, Crown Him, everlasting King.

Lo, the Man on earth rejected!
 Angels worship at His feet:
 Haste, ye saints! your tribute bring,
 Crown Him, everlasting King.

2 Yonder throne, for Him erected,
 Now becomes the Victor's seat;

3 Day and night they cry before Him,—
 "Holy, holy, holy Lord!"
 All the powers of heaven adore Him,
 All obey His sovereign word:
 Haste, ye saints! your tribute bring,
 Crown Him, everlasting King.

2 King of glory! reign for ever—
 Thine an everlasting crown;
 Nothing, from Thy love, shall sever
 Those whom Thou hast made Thine own;—
 Happy objects of Thy grace,
 Destined to behold Thy face.

3 Saviour! hasten Thine appearing;
 Bring, oh, bring the glorious day,
 When, the awful summons hearing,
 Heaven and earth shall pass away;—
 Then, with golden harps, we'll sing,—
 "Glory, glory to our King!"

German Choral, 1698.

“Who is this that comes from E-dom,” All His rai-ment stained with blood,

To the slave pro-claiming freedom, Bring-ing and be-stow-ing good,

Glo-rious in the garb He wears, Glo-rious in the spoil He bears?

2 'Tis the Saviour, now victorious,
Traveling onward in His might!
'Tis the Saviour! Oh! how glorious
To His people is the sight!
Mighty to redeem the slave,
Jesus now is strong to save.

3 Mighty Victor! reign for ever;
Wear the crown so dearly won;
Never shall Thy people, never,
Cease to sing what Thou hast done;
Thou hast fought Thy people's foes;
Thou wilt heal Thy people's woes.

Thomas Kelly, 1839.

2 Crown the Saviour! angels! crown Him!
Rich the trophies Jesus brings;
In the seat of power enthrone Him,
While the heavenly concave rings:
||: Crown Him! crown Him! :||
Crown the Saviour, “King of kings!”

3 Sinners in derision crowned Him,
Mocking thus the Saviour's claim;
Saints and angels! crowd around Him,
Own His title, praise His name:
||: Crown Him! crown Him! :||
Spread abroad the Victor's fame.

216

Look, ye saints!—the sight is glorious;
See the “Man of sorrows” now!
From the fight returned victorious,
Every knee to Him shall bow:
||: Crown Him! crown Him! :||
Crowns become the Victor's brow.

4 Hark! those bursts of acclamation!
Hark! those loud, triumphant chords!
Jesus takes the highest station;
Oh! what joy the sight affords!
||: Crown Him! crown Him! :||
“King of kings, and Lord of lords.”

SEE, the Conqueror mounts in triumph!
See the King in royal state,
Riding on the clouds, His chariot,
To His heavenly palace gate!
Hark! the choirs of angel voices
Joyful alleluia sing,
And the portals high are lifted,
To receive their heavenly King.

2 Who is this that comes in glory,
With the trump of jubilee?
Lord of battles, God of armies,
He has gained the victory;
He, who on the cross did suffer,
He, who from the grave arose,
He has vanquished sin and Satan,
He by death has spoiled His foes.

The Ascended Lord.

3 Thou hast raised our human nature,
On the clouds to God's right hand;
There we sit in heavenly places,
There with Thee in glory stand;
Jesus reigns, adored by angels;
Man with God is on the throne;
Mighty Lord! in Thine ascension,
We by faith behold our own.

4 Lift us up from earth to heaven,
Give us wings of faith and love,
Gales of holy aspirations.
Wafting us to realms above;
That, with hearts and minds uplifted,
We with Christ our Lord may dwell,
Where He sits enthroned in glory,
In the heavenly citadel.

5 So at last, when He appeareth,
We from out our graves may spring,
With our youth renewed like eagles',
Flocking round our heavenly King,
Caught up on the clouds of heaven,
And may meet Him in the air,
Rise to realms where He is reigning,
And may reign for ever there.

Saviour! triumphant, go
And take Thy crown!

3 Lion of Judah! hail!—
And let Thy name prevail
From age to age:
Lord of the rolling years!
Claim for Thine own the spheres;
For Thou hast bought with tears

And, as they tune it, fall
Before His face who tunes their choir,
And crown Him Lord of all.

3 Ye seed of Israel's chosen race,
Ye ransomed of the fall,
Hail Him who saves you by His grace,
And crown Him Lord of all.

4 Hail Him, ye heirs of David's line,
Whom David Lord did call;

The God incarnate, Man Divine;
And crown Him Lord of all.

5 Sinners! whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall,
Go, spread your trophies at His feet
And crown Him Lord of all.

HARK the notes of angels, singing,
"Glory, glory to the Lamb!"
All in heaven their tribute bringing,
Raising high the Saviour's name.

2 Ye, for whom His life was given!
Sacred themes to you belong;
Come, assist the choir of heaven;
Join the everlasting song.

3 See, th'angelic hosts have crowned Him,
Jesus fills the throne on high:
Countless myriads, hovering round Him,
With His praises rend the sky.

4 Filled with holy emulation,
Let us vie with those above;
Sweet the theme—a free salvation!
Fruit of everlasting love.

5 Endless life in Him possessing,
Let us praise His precious name,
Glory, honor, power, and blessing,
Be for ever to the Lamb!

Thomas Kelly, 1804.

226

CHRIST, above all glory seated,
King eternal, strong to save,
Dying, Thou hast death defeated;
Buried, Thou hast spoiled the grave!

2 Thou art gone where now is given
What no mortal might could gain,
On th' eternal throne of heaven,
In Thy Father's power to reign.

3 There Thy kingdoms all adore Thee,
Heaven above and earth below,
While the depths of hell before Thee
Trembling and defeated bow.

4 We, O Lord, with hearts adoring,
Follow Thee above the sky;
Hear our prayers Thy grace imploring,
Lift our souls to Thee on high.

5 So when Thou again in glory
On the clouds of heaven shalt shine,
We Thy flock may stand before Thee,
Owned for evermore as Thine.

JOHN ZUNDEL, 1852.

Musical score for 'The Royal Priest' in G major, 4/4 time. The score consists of three systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: 'Fair shines the morning star, The silver trumpets sound, Their notes re-echoing far, While dawns the day a-round: Joy to the slave; the slave is free; It is the year of ju-bi-lee, It is the year of ju-bi-lee.' The piano part includes dynamic markings such as f and ff.

- 2 Blow ye the trumpet,—blow!—
The gladly solemn sound;
Let all the nations know,
To earth's remotest bound,—
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners! home.
- 3 Extol the Lamb of God,—
The all-atoning Lamb,
Redemption in His blood,
Throughout the world proclaim;
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners! home.
- 4 Ye, who have sold for naught
Your heritage above!
Shall have it back unbought,
The gift of Jesus' love;
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners! home.

- God is gone up on high,
With a triumphant noise;
The clarions of the sky
Proclaim th' angelic joys:
Join, all on earth! rejoice and sing;
Glory ascribe to glory's King.
- 2 All power to our great Lord
Is by the Father given;
By angel hosts adored,
He reigns supreme in heaven:
Join, all on earth! rejoice and sing,
Glory ascribe to glory's King.
 - 3 Till all the earth, renewed
In righteousness divine,
With all the hosts of God,
In one great chorus join,
Join, all on earth! rejoice and sing,
Glory ascribe to glory's King.

2 O Source of uncreated light!
The Father's promised Paraclete!
Thrice holy Fount, thrice holy Fire!
Our hearts with heavenly love inspire;
Come, and Thy sacred unction bring,
To sanctify us while we sing.

3 Refine and purge our earthly parts;
But, Oh! inflame and fire our hearts;
Make us eternal truths receive,

And practice all that we believe;
Give us Thyself, that we may see
The Father and the Son, by Thee.

4 Immortal honors, endless fame,
Attend th' almighty Father's name!
The Saviour Son be glorified,
Who for lost man's redemption died!
And equal adoration be,

The Holy Ghost.

- 2 Enlightened by Thy heavenly ray,
Our shades and darkness turn to day;
Thine inward teachings make us know
Our danger, and our refuge too.
- 3 Thy power and glory work within,
And break the chains of reigning sin;
Do our imperious lusts subdue,
And form our wretched hearts anew.
- 4 The troubled conscience knows Thy voice,
Thy cheering words awake our joys;
Thy words allay the stormy wind,
And calm the surges of the mind.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

SPIRIT of power, and truth, and love,
Who sitt'st enthroned in light above!
Descend, and bear us on Thy wings,
Far from these low and fleeting things.

- 2 'Tis Thine the wounded soul to heal;
'Tis Thine to make the hardened feel;
Thine to give light to blinded eyes,
And bid the groveling spirit rise.
- 3 When faith is weak, and courage fails,
When grief or doubt our soul assails,
Who can, like Thee, our spirits cheer?
Great Comforter! be ever near.
- 4 Come Holy Spirit! like the fire;
With burning zeal our souls inspire;
Come, like the south wind, breathing balm,
Our joys refresh, our passions calm.
- 5 Come, like the sun's enlightening beam;
Come, like the cooling, cleansing stream;
With all Thy graces present be:—
Spirit of God! we wait for Thee.

Wm. Lindsay Alexander, 1849.

232

- COME, blessed Spirit, Source of light!
Whose power and grace are unconfined,
Dispel the gloomy shades of night,
The thicker darkness of the mind.
- 2 To mine illumined eyes, display
The glorious truths Thy word reveals,
Cause me to run the heavenly way,
Thy book unfold, and loose the seals.
- 3 Thine inward teachings make me know
The mysteries of redeeming love,
The emptiness of things below,
And excellence of things above.
- 4 While thro this dubious maze I stray,
Spread, like the sun, Thy beams abroad,
To show the dangers of the way,
And guide my feeble steps to God.

Benjamin Beddome, 1770.

233

- COME, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove!
My sinful maladies remove;
Be Thou my Light, be Thou my Guide,
O'er every thought and step preside.
- 2 The light of truth to me display,
That I may know and choose my way;
Plant holy fear within my heart,
That I from God may ne'er depart.
- 3 Conduct me safe, conduct me far,
From every sin and hurtful snare;
Lead me to God, my final rest,
In His enjoyment to be bless'd.
- 4 Lead me to holiness, the road
That I must take to dwell with God;
Lead to Thy word, that rules must give,
And sure directions how to live.

OUR God, our God! Thou shinest here,
Thine own this latter day:
To us Thy radiant steps appear;
We watch Thy glorious way.

- 2 Not only olden ages felt
The presence of the Lord;
Not only with the fathers dwelt
Thy Spirit and Thy word.
- 3 Doth not the Spirit still descend,
And bring the heavenly fire?
Doth not He still Thy church extend
And waiting souls inspire?
- 4 Come, Holy Ghost, in us arise,
Be this Thy mighty hour!
And make Thy willing people wise
To know Thy day of power!

236

- IN Thy great name, O Lord! we come,
To worship at Thy feet;
Oh! pour Thy Holy Spirit down
On all that now shall meet.
- 2 Teach us to pray, and praise, and hear,
And understand Thy word;
To feel Thy blissful presence near,
And trust our living Lord.
- 3 Let sinners, Lord! Thy goodness prove,
And saints rejoice in Thee;
Let rebels be subdued by love,
And to the Saviour flee.

- ENTHRONED on high, almighty Lord!
Thy Holy Ghost send down;
Fulfill in us Thy faithful word,
And all Thy mercies crown.
- 2 Though, on our heads, no tongues of fire
Their wondrous powers impart,
Grant, Saviour! what we more desire,
Thy Spirit in our heart.

Come, Ho - ly Spir - it, heaven - ly Dove, With all Thy quick'ning powers;
Kin - dle a flame of sa - cred love In these cold hearts of ours.

2 Look—how we grovel here below,
Fond of these trifling toys!
Our souls can neither fly nor go,
To reach eternal joys.

3 In vain we tune our formal songs,
In vain we try to rise;
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.

4 Dear Lord! and shall we ever live,
At this poor dying rate?
Our love so faint, so cold to Thee,
And Thine to us so great?

5 Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove!
With all Thy quickening powers;
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

Isaac Watts, 1707.

3 Subdue the power of every sin,

ETERNAL Spirit!—God of truth!
Our contrite hearts inspire;
Kindle the flame of heavenly love,

Come, sinner! to the gos-pel feast; Oh! come without de-lay; For there is room in Jesus' breast, For all who will obey; For all who will obey; For all who will o-bey.

2 There's room, in God's eternal love,
To save Thy precious soul;
Room, in the Spirit's grace above,
To heal and make thee whole.

3 There's room, within the church, redeem'd
With blood of Christ divine;
Room, in the white-robed throng, conven'd,
For that dear soul of thine.

4 There's room, in heaven among the choir,
And harps and crowns of gold,
And glorious palms of vict'ry there,
And joys that ne'er were told.

Deep in our hearts, let us re - cord The deep - er sor - rows of our Lord;

Be - hold the ris - ing bil - lows roll, To o - ver - whelm His ho - ly soul!

2 Yet, gracious God! Thy power and love
Have made the curse a blessing prove;
'Those dreadful sufferings of Thy Son
Atoned for sins which we had done.

3 The pangs of our expiring Lord
The honors of Thy law restored;
His sorrows made Thy justice known,
And paid for follies not His own.

4 Oh! for His sake, our guilt forgive,
And let the mourning sinner live:
The Lord will hear us in His name,
Nor shall our hope be turned to shame.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

HASTE, traveler, haste! the night comes on,
And many a shining hour is gone;
The storm is gathering in the west,
And thou far off from home and rest.

2 The rising tempest sweeps the sky;
The rains descend, the winds are high;
The waters swell, and death and fear
Beset thy path, nor refuge near.

3 Oh, yet a shelter you may gain,
A covert from the wind and rain;
A hiding-place, a rest, a home,
A refuge from the wrath to come!

4 Then linger not in all the plain;
Flee for thy life; the mountain gain;
Look not behind; make no delay;
Oh, speed thee, speed thee on thy way!

Wm. Bengo Colyer, 1829.

284

WHEN God's right arm is bared for war,
And thunders clothe His cloudy car,
We sing the Saviour of our race,
The Lamb our shield and hiding-place.

2 'Tis He, the Lamb, to Him we fly,
While the dread tempest passes by,
To Him, though guilty still we run,
And God still spares us for His Son.

3 While yet we sojourn here below,
Pollutions still our hearts o'erflow;
Fall'n, abject, mean, a sentenced race,
We deeply need a hiding-place.

4 Yet courage—days and years will glide,
And we shall lay these clods aside;
Shall be baptized in Jordan's flood,
And washed in Jesus' cleansing blood.

5 Then pure, immortal, sinless, freed,
We, through the Lamb, shall be decreed,—
Shall meet the Father face to face,
And need no more a hiding-place.

“Come hith-er, all ye wea-ry souls! Ye heavy-lad-en sinners! come;

I'll give you rest from all your toils, And raise you to My heavenly home.

2 “They shall find rest, that learn of Me;
I'm of a meek and lowly mind;
But passion rages like the sea,
And pride is restless as the wind.

3 “Bless'd is the man, whose shoulders take
My yoke, and bear it with delight;
My yoke is easy to his neck,
My grace shall make the burden light.”

4 Jesus! we come at Thy command;
With faith, and hope, and humble zeal;
Resign our spirits, to Thy hand,
To mould and guide us at Thy will.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

BEHOLD! a Stranger's at the door!
He gently knocks,—has knocked before;
Has waited long—is waiting still;
You treat no other friend so ill.

2 But will He prove a friend indeed?
He will—the very friend you need;
The Man of Nazareth,—'tis He,
With garments dyed at Calvary.

3 Oh! lovely attitude!—He stands
With melting heart, and laden hands:
Oh! matchless kindness!—and He shows
This matchless kindness to His foes.

4 Admit Him, ere His anger burn;
His feet departed ne'er return;
Admit Him,—or the hour's at hand,
When, at His door, denied you'll stand.

Joseph Grigg, 1765.

JESUS, engrave it on my heart
That Thou the one thing needful art;
I could from all things parted be,
But never, never, Lord, from Thee.

2 Needful is Thy most precious blood
To reconcile my soul to God,
Needful is Thy indulgent care,
Needful Thy all-prevailing prayer.

3 Needful Thy presence, dearest Lord,
True peace and comfort to afford,
Needful Thy promise, to impart
Fresh life and vigor to my heart.

4 Needful art Thou, my Guide, my Stay,
Through all life's dark and weary way;
Nor less in death Thou'lt needful be
To bring my spirit home to Thee.

5 Then needful still, my God, my King,
Thy name eternally I'll sing!
Glory and praise be ever His—
The one thing needful Jesus is!

There is a time we know not when, A place we know not where,
That marks the des - ti - ny of men, To glo - ry or de - spair.

m

2 There is a line by us unseen,
That crosses every path,
The hidden boundary between
God's patience and His wrath.

3 To pass that limit is to die,
To die as if by stealth;
It does not quench the beaming eye,
Or pale the glow of health.

4 The conscience may be still at ease,
The spirits light and gay;
That which is pleasing still may please,
And care be thrust away.

5 But on that forehead God has set
Indelibly a mark—
Unseen by man, for man as yet
Is blind and in the dark.

6 And still the doom'd man's path below
May bloom as Eden bloom'd—
He did not, does not, will not know,
Or feel, that he is doom'd.

7 Oh! where is this mysterious bourne
By which our path is crossed;
Beyond which God Himself hath sworn
That He who goes, is lost?

8 How far may we go on to sin?
How long will God forbear?
Where does hope end, and where begin
The confines of despair?

9 An answer from the skies is sent,—
"Ye that from God depart,
While it is called to-day, repent,
And harden not your heart."

J. Addison Alexander, 1847.

289

O SINNER, bring not tears alone,
Or outward form of prayer,
But let it in thy heart be known
That penitence is there

2 To smite the breast, the clothes to rend,
God asketh not of thee;
Thy secret soul He bids thee bend
In true humility.

3 O, let us, then, with heartfelt grief,
Draw near unto our God,
And pray to Him to grant relief,
And stand the lifted rod.

4 O righteous Judge, if Thou wilt deign
To grant us what we need,
We pray for time to turn again,
And grace to turn indeed.

Lo! on a narrow neck of land, 'Twixt two unbounded seas, I stand, Se - cure, insen - si - ble! { A point of time, a moment's space, }

 { Removes me to yon heavenly place, } Or shuts me up in hell.

2 O God! mine inmost soul convert,
 And deeply, on my thoughtful heart,
 Eternal things impress:
 Give me to feel their solemn weight,
 And tremble on the brink of fate,
 And wake to righteousness.

3 Before me place, in dread array,
 The pomp of that tremendous day,
 When Thou, with clouds, shalt come
 To judge the nations at Thy bar;
 And tell me, Lord! shall I be there
 To meet a joyful doom!

Charles Wesley, 1749.

3 Prevent, prevent it by Thy grace;
 Be Thou, dear Lord! my hiding-place,
 In this th' accepted day;
 Thy pard'ning voice, Oh! let me hear,
 To still my unbelieving fear,
 Nor let me fall, I pray.

4 Among Thy saints let me be found,
 Whene'er th' archangel's trump shall sound,
 To see Thy smiling face;
 Then loudest of the throng Ill sing,
 While heaven's resounding mansions ring
 With shouts of sovereign grace.

Selina Shirley, 1772, a.

WHEN Thou, my righteous Judge! shalt come
 To take Thy ransomed people home,
 Shall I among them stand?
 Shall such a worthless one as I,
 Who sometimes am afraid to die,
 Be found at Thy right hand?

2 I love to meet among them now,
 Before Thy gracious feet to bow,
 Though humblest of them all;
 How can I bear the piercing thought,
 What, if my name should be left out,
 When Thou for them shalt call?

292

O Thou, that hear'st the prayer of faith!
 Wilt Thou not save a soul from death,
 That casts itself on Thee?
 I have no refuge of my own,
 But fly to what my Lord hath done,
 And suffered once for me.

2 Slain in the guilty sinner's stead,
 His spotless righteousness I plead,
 And His availing blood;
 Thy merit, Lord! my robe shall be;
 Thy merit shall atone for me,
 And bring me near to God.

A broken heart, my God, my King! Is all the sac - ri - fice I bring;

The God of grace will ne'er de - spise A broken heart for sac - ri - fice.

2 My soul lies humbled in the dust,
And owns Thy dreadful sentence just;
Look down, O Lord! with pitying eye,
And save the soul condemned to die.

3 Create my nature pure within,
And form my soul averse to sin;
Let Thy good Spirit ne'er depart,
Nor hide Thy presence from my heart.

4 I cannot live without Thy light,
Cast out and banished from Thy sight:
Thy holy joys, my God! restore,
And guard me, that I fall no more.

5 Then will I teach the world Thy ways;
Sinners shall learn Thy sovereign grace;
I'll lead them to my Saviour's blood,
And they shall praise a pard'ning God.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

BURIED in shadows of the night,
We lie, till Christ restores the light;
Wisdom descends to heal the blind,
And chase the darkness of the mind.

2 Our guilty souls are drowned in tears,
Till His atoning blood appears;
Then we awake from deep distress,
And sing the Lord, our Righteousness.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

295

WHEN at Thy footstool, Lord! I bend,
And plead with Thee for mercy there,
Oh! think Thou of the sinner's Friend,
And for His sake receive my prayer.

2 Oh! think not of my shame and guilt,
My thousand stains of deepest dye;
Think of the blood which Jesus spilt,
And let that blood my pardon buy.

3 Think, Lord! how I am still Thine own,
The trembling creature of Thy hand!
Think how my heart to sin is prone,
And what temptations round me stand.

4 Oh! think upon Thy holy word,
And every plighted promise there;
How prayer should evermore be heard,
And how Thy glory is—to spare.

5 Oh! think not of my doubts and fears,
My strivings with Thy grace divine:
But think on Jesus' woes and tears,
And let His merits stand for mine.

6 Thine eye, Thine ear, they are not dull;
Thine arm can never shortened be;
Behold me here! my heart is full;
Behold, and spare, and succor me!

ANON.

Jesus, Thou art the sinner's friend; As such I look to Thee; Now, in the fullness of Thy love, Now, in the fullness of Thy love, O Lord, re-member me.

- 2 Remember Thy pure word of grace,
Remember Calvary,
Remember all Thy dying groans,
And then remember me.
- 3 Lord! I am guilty—I am vile,
But Thy salvation's free;
Then, in Thine all-abounding grace,
Dear Lord, remember me.
- 4 And when I close mine eyes in death,
When creature helps all flee;
Then, O my dear Redeemer God,
I pray, remember me.

Richard Burnham, 1783, a.

297

O JESUS, Saviour of the lost,
My Rock and Hiding-place,
By storms of sin and sorrow tossed,
I seek Thy sheltering grace.

- 2 Guilty, forgive me Lord! I cry;
Pursued by foes, I come;
A sinner, save me, or I die—
An outcast, take me home.
- 3 And when I stand before Thy throne,
And all Thy glories see,
Still be my righteousness alone
To hide myself in Thee.

Edward H. Bickersteth, 1849.

298

How oft, alas! this wretched heart
Has wandered from the Lord!
How oft my roving thoughts depart,
Forgetful of His word!

- 2 Yet sovereign mercy calls—"Return!"
Dear Lord! and may I come?
My vile ingratitude I mourn;
Oh! take the wanderer home.
- 3 Thy pard'ning love, so free, so sweet,
Dear Saviour! I adore;
Oh! keep me at Thy sacred feet,
And let me rove no more.

Anne Steele, 1760.

O God of mercy! hear my call,
My loads of guilt remove;
Break down this separating wall,
That bars me from Thy love.

- 2 Give me the presence of Thy grace;
Then my rejoicing tongue
Shall speak aloud Thy righteousness,
And make Thy praise my song.
- 3 No blood of goats, nor heifer slain,
For sin could e'er atone:
The death of Christ shall still remain
Sufficient and alone.

Jesus, the sinner's friend, to Thee, Lost and un-done for aid I flee;

Wea-ry of earth, my-self, and sin: O-pen Thine arms, and take me in.

2 Pity and heal my sin-sick soul;
'Tis Thou alone canst make me whole;
Dark, till in me Thine image shine,
And lost, I am, till Thou art mine.

3 At last I own it cannot be
That I should fit myself for Thee:
Here, then, to Thee I all resign;
Thine is the work, and only Thine.

4 What shall I say Thy grace to move?
Lord, I am sin,—but Thou art love:
I give up every plea beside,—
Lord, I am lost—but Thou hast died.

Charles Wesley, 1739, a.

301

With broken heart and contrite sigh,
A trembling sinner, Lord! I cry;
Thy pard'ning grace is rich and free;
O God! be merciful to me!

2 I smite upon my troubled breast,
With deep and conscious guilt oppressed
Christ and His cross, my only plea;
O God! be merciful to me!

3 Far off I stand with tearful eyes,
Nor dare uplift them to the skies;
But Thou dost all my anguish see;
O God! be merciful to me!

4 Nor alms, nor deeds, that I have done,
Can for a single sin atone;
To Calvary alone I flee;
O God! be merciful to me!

5 And when, redeemed from sin and hell,
With all the ransomed throng I dwell,
My raptured song shall ever be,
God has been merciful to me!

Cornelius Elven, 1852.

NATURE with open volume stands
To spread her Maker's praise abroad;
And every labor of His hands
Shows something worthy of a God:—

2 But in the grace that rescued man,
His brightest form of glory shines;
Here, on the cross, 'tis fairest drawn,
In precious blood and crimson lines.

3 Oh! the sweet wonders of that cross,
Where God, the Saviour, loved and died!
Her noblest life my spirit draws
From His dear wounds and bleeding side.

4 I would forever speak His name,
In sounds to mortal ears unknown;
With angels join to praise the Lamb,
And worship at His Father's throne.

2 Life and salvation doth He bring,
Wherefore rejoice, and gladly sing:
Eternal praise, my God! to Thee!
Creator! wise is Thy decree.

3 Fling wide the portals of your heart,
Make it a temple, set apart
From earthly use for heaven's employ,
Adorned with prayer, and love, and joy.

4 Redeemer! come; I open wide
My heart to Thee; here, Lord! abide;
Let me Thine inner presence feel,

God calling yet!—shall I not hear?
Earth's pleasures shall I still hold dear?
Shall life's swift passing years all fly,
And still my soul in slumbers lie?

2 God calling yet!—shall I not rise?
Can I His loving voice despise,
And basely His kind care repay?
He calls me still; can I delay?

3 God calling yet!—and shall He knock,
And I my heart the closer lock?
He still is waiting to receive,
And shall I dare His Spirit grieve?

4 God calling yet!—I cannot stay;
My heart I yield without delay;
Vain world! farewell; from thee I part;
The voice of God hath reached my heart.

JESUS, my All, to heaven is gone,
He whom I fix my hopes upon;
His track I see, and I'll pursue
The narrow way, till Him I view.

2 The way the holy prophets went,
The road that leads from banishment,
The King's highway of holiness,
I'll go; for all His paths are peace.

3 Lo! glad I come! and Thou, blest Lamb!
Shalt take me to Thee as I am;
Nothing but sin I Thee can give;
Nothing but love shall I receive.

4 Then will I tell, to sinners round,
What a dear Saviour I have found;
I'll point to Thy redeeming blood,
And say—Behold the way to God!

Wea - ry of earth and lad - en with my sin, I look at

2 So vile I am, how dare I hope to stand

Before the whiteness of that throne appear?
Yet there are hands stretch'd out to draw me near.

3 It is the voice of Jesus that I hear,
His are the hands stretch'd out to draw me near,
And His the blood that can for all atone,
And set me faultless there before the throne.

4 Yea, Thou wilt answer for me, righteous Lord:
Thine all the merits, mine the great reward;
Thine the sharp thorns, and mine the golden crown,
Mine the life won, and Thine the life laid down.

5 Naught can I bring, dear Lord, for all I owe,

I see the crowd in Pi-late's hall, I mark their wrath-ful mien;
 Their shouts of "cru-ci-fy" ap-pall, With blas-phe-my be-tween.

- 2 And of that shouting multitude
 I feel that I am one;
 And in that din of voices rude,
 I recognize my own.
- 3 I see the scourges tear His back,
 I see the piercing crown,
 And of that crowd who smite and mock
 I feel that I am one.
- 4 Around you cross the throng I see,
 Mocking the Sufferer's groan;
 Yet still my voice it seems to be,
 As if I mocked alone.
- 5 'Twas I that shed the sacred blood,
 I nailed Him to the tree,
 I crucified the Christ of God,
 I joined the mockery.
- 6 Yet not the less that blood avails
 To cleanse away my sin;
 And not the less that cross prevails
 To give me peace within.

Horatius Bonar, 1857.

- 2 While love its grateful anthem swells,
 Tears mingle with the song:
 My heart with tender anguish bleeds,
 That I such grace should wrong.

 But, O my Father! speak;
 And all the harmony of heaven,
 Shall through the silence break.

 By earth's low cares detained, betrayed,
 From Jesus to depart.
- 3 But He, for His own mercy's sake,

 He bids the mourning heart partake
 The pardon it implores.

 With pity in Thy face,
 And I will own for ever, Lord!

0 Je-sus, Thou art standing Outside the fast-closed door, In low-ly patience wait-ing To pass the threshold o'er: We bear the name of Christians, His name and sign we bear: Oh, shame, thrice shame upon us! To keep Him standing there.

2 O Jesus, Thou art knocking:
And lo! that hand is scarred,
And thorns Thy brow encircle,
And tears Thy face have marred:
Oh, love that passeth knowledge,
So patiently to wait!
Oh, sin that hath no equal,
So fast to bar the gate!

3 O Jesus, Thou art pleading
In accents meek and low,—
“I died for you, my children,
And will ye treat me so?”
O Lord, with shame and sorrow
We open now the door:
Dear Saviour, enter, enter,
And leave us nevermore!

2 Thy promise is my only plea,
With this I venture nigh:
Thou call'st burdened souls to Thee,

3 Bowed down beneath a load of sin,
By Satan sorely pressed,
By war without and fears within,
I come to Thee for rest.
4 Be Thou my shield and hiding-place
That, sheltered near Thy side,
I may my fierce Accuser face,

WHEN, wounded sore, the stricken soul
Lies bleeding and unbound,
One only hand, a piercéd hand,
Can salve the sinner's wound.
2 When sorrow swells the laden breast,
And tears of anguish flow,
One only heart, a broken heart,
Can feel the sinner's woe.
3 When penitence has wept in vain
Over some foul, dark spot,

One only stream, a stream of blood,
Can wash away the blot.
4 'Tis Jesus' blood, that washes white,
His hand, that brings relief;
His heart, that's touched with all our joys,
And feeleth for our grief.
5 Lift up Thy bleeding hand, O Lord!
Unseal that cleansing tide;
We have no shelter from our sin,
But in Thy wounded side.

WITH tears of anguish I lament,
Here at Thy feet, my God!
My passion, pride, and discontent,
And vile ingratitude.
2 Sure there was ne'er a heart so base,
So false, as mine has been,—
So faithless to its promises,
So prone to every sin?
3 How long, dear Saviour! shall I feel
These struggles in my breast?
When wilt Thou bow my stubborn will,
And give my conscience rest?
4 Break, sovereign grace! Oh! break the
And set the captive free; [charm,

Isaac Watts, 1719.

356

LORD! Thou hast searched and seen me through;
Thine eye commands, with piercing view,
My rising and my resting hours,
My heart and flesh, with all their powers.

357

He lives, the great Redeemer lives;
(What joy the blest assurance gives!)
And now, before His Father, God,
Pleads the full merits of His blood.

2 Repeated crimes awake our fears,
And justice armed with frowns, appears;
But in the Saviour's lovely face,
Sweet mercy smiles, and all is peace.

Faith.

3 Hence then, ye black, despairing thoughts! 4 In every dark distressful hour,
Above our fears. above our faults, When sin and Satan join their power,
His powerful intercessions rise, Let this dear hope repel the dart,
And guilt recedes, and terror dies. That Jesus bears us on His heart.

5 Great Advocate, almighty Friend!—
On Him our humble hopes depend:
Our cause can never, never fail,
For Jesus pleads, and must prevail.

Anne Steele, 1760.

Scotch Psalter, 1615.

In all my vast con-cerns with Thee, In vain my soul would try

To shun Thy presence, Lord! or flee The no-tice of Thine eye.

2 Thine all-surrounding sight surveys
My rising and my rest,
My public walks, my private ways,
And secrets of my breast.

3 My thoughts lie open to the Lord,
Before they're formed within;
And ere my lips pronounce the word,
He knows the sense I mean.

4 Oh! wondrous knowledge, deep and high!
Where can a creature hide?
Within Thy circling arms I lie,
Beset on every side.

5 So let Thy grace surround me still,
And like a bulwark prove,
To guard my soul from every ill,
Secured by sovereign love.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

359

Thy way, O God! is in the sea,
Thy path I cannot trace;
Nor comprehend the mystery
Of Thine unbounded grace.

2 As in a glass, I dimly see
The wonders of Thy love;
How little do I know of Thee,
Or of the joys above!

3 'Tis but in part I know Thy will;—
I bless Thee for the sight:
But soon Thy love will all reveal,
In glory's clearer light!

4 With rapture I shall then survey
Thy providence and grace;
And spend an everlasting day
In wonder, love, and praise.

WILLIAM JONES, 1789.

Oh! for a faith that will not shrink, Tho' pressed by ev - ery foe;

That will not trem - ble on the brink of an - y earth - ly woe!—

2 That will not murmur nor complain,
Beneath the chastening rod,
But, in the hour of grief or pain,
Will lean upon its God;—

3 A faith, that shines more bright and clear
When tempests rage without;
That, when in danger, knows no fear,
In darkness, feels no doubt;—

4 A faith, that keeps the narrow way
Till life's last hour is fled,
And, with a pure and heavenly ray,
Lights up a dying bed!

5 Lord! give us such a faith as this;
And then, whate'er may come,
We'll taste, ev'n here, the hallowed bliss
Of an eternal home.

William H. Bathurst, 1830.

THE roseate hues of early dawn,
The brightness of the day,
The crimson of the sunset sky,
How fast they fade away!

2 Oh! for the pearly gates of heaven!
Oh! for the golden floor!
Oh! for the Sun of righteousness,
That setteth never more!

3 Oh! for a heart that never sins!
Oh! for a soul washed white!

Oh! for a voice to praise our King,
Nor weary day or night!

4 Oh! by Thy love and anguish, Lord!
Oh! by Thy life laid down,
Oh! that we fall not from Thy grace,
Nor cast away our crown.

Cecil Frances Alexander, 1853.

GIVE me the wings of faith, to rise
Within the veil, and see
The saints above,—how great their joys,
How bright their glories be.

2 I ask them,—whence their victory came?
They, with united breath,
Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb,—
Their triumph to His death.

3 They marked the footsteps that He trod;
His zeal inspired their breast;
And, following their incarnate God,
Possess the promised rest.

4 Our glorious Leader claims our praise,
For His own pattern given,
While the long cloud of witnesses
Show the same path to heaven.

LOWELL MASON, 1839.

Tis by the faith of joys to come, We walk thro deserts dark as night;
Till we ar- rive at heaven, our home, Faith is our guide, and faith our light.

- 2 The want of sight she well supplies;
She makes the pearly gates appear;
Far into distant worlds she pries,
And brings eternal glories near.
- 3 Cheerful we tread the desert through,
While faith inspires a heavenly ray;
Though lions roar and tempests blow,
And rocks and dangers fill the way.
- 4 So Abr'am, by divine command,
Left his own house to walk with God;
His faith beheld the promised land,
And fired his zeal along the road.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

- 4 Often I feel my sinful heart
Prone from my Jesus to depart;
And, though I oft have Him forgot,
His loving-kindness changes not.
- 5 So, when I pass death's gloomy vale;
And life, and mortal powers shall fail:
Oh! may my last expiring breath
His loving-kindness sing in death!
- 6 Then shall I mount and soar away
To the bright world of endless day;
Then shall I sing, with sweet surprise,
His loving-kindness in the skies!

Samuel Medley, 1787.

364

AWAKE, my soul! in joyful lays,
And sing Thy great Redeemer's praise;
He justly claims a song from me,
His loving kindness is so free.

- 2 He saw me ruined in the fall,
Yet loved me, notwithstanding all,
And saved me from my lost estate;
His loving-kindness is so great.
- 3 Through mighty hosts of cruel foes,
Where earth and hell my way oppose,
He safely leads my soul along,
His loving-kindness is so strong.

365

LET me but hear my Saviour say,
"Strength shall be equal to thiy day;"
Then I rejoice in deep distress,
Leaning on all sufficient grace.

- 2 I glory in infirmity,
That Christ's own power may rest on me;
When I am weak, then am I strong,
Grace is my shield, and Christ my song.
- 3 I can do all things, or can bear
All sufferings, if my Lord be there;
Sweet pleasures mingle with the pains,
While His kind hand my soul sustains.

3 Let sorrow do its work,
Send grief and pain;
Sweet are Thy messengers,
Sweet their refrain,
When they can sing with me,—
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee.

I'VE found the Pearl of greatest price!
My heart doth sing for joy;
And sing I must, for Christ is mine!
Christ shall my praise employ.

2 Christ is my Prophet, Priest and King;
My Prophet full of light,
My great High-Priest before the throne,
My King of heavenly might.

3 Christ is my Peace; He died for me,
For me He gave His blood;
And, as my wondrous Sacrifice,
Offered Himself to God.

THERE is a name I love to hear,
I love to sing its worth;
It sounds like music in mine ear,
The sweetest name on earth.

2 It tells me of a Saviour's love,
Who died to set me free;
It tells me of His precious blood,
The sinner's perfect plea.

3 It tells me what my Father hath
In store for every day,
And, though I tread a darksome path,
Yields sunshine all the way.

4 It tells of One, whose loving heart
Can feel my deepest woe,
Who in each sorrow bears a part,
That none can bear below.

5 Then let me praise that charming name,
'Tis music to mine ear;
Fain would I sound it out so loud,
That earth and heaven should hear.

Ma - jestic sweetness sits enthroned Up-on the Saviour's brow; His head with radiant glories crowned, His lips with grace o'erflow, His lips with grace o'erflow.

2 No mortal can with Him compare
Among the sons of men;
Fairer is He, than all the fair
That fill the heavenly train.

3 He saw me plunged in deep distress;
He flew to my relief;
For me He bore the shameful cross;
And carried all my grief.

4 To Him I owe my life and breath,
And all the joys I have;
He makes me triumph over death,
And saves me from the grave.

AMAZING grace!—how sweet the sound!
That saved a wretch like me;
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.

2 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear,

'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

For me didst bear the nails and spear,

396 Miller. L. M.

HUBERT P. MAIN, 1870.

Earth has a joy unknown to heaven, The new-born peace of sins forgiven;
Tears of such pure and deep delight, Ye an-gels, nev-er dimmed your sight.

2 Loud is the song, the heavenly plain
Is shaken with the choral strain;
And dying echoes, floating far,
Draw music from each chiming star.

3 But I amid your choirs shall shine,
And all your knowledge shall be mine;
Ye on your harps must lean to hear
A secret chord that mine will bear.

Augustus Lucas Hillhouse, 1822.

W. G. FISCHER, 1869.

I love to tell the sto - ry Of unseen things above, Of Je - sus and His glory,

Of Je - sus and His love. I love to tell the story, Because I know 'tis true;

CHORUS.
It sat - is - fies my longings As nothing else can do. I love to tell the story,

'Twill be my theme in glory, To tell the old, old story Of Jesus and His love.

2 I love to tell the story:
'Tis pleasant to repeat
What seems each time I tell it,
More wonderfully sweet.
I love to tell the story:
For some have never heard
The message of salvation,
From God's own holy Word.—СНО.

3 I love to tell the story;
For those who know it best
Seem hungering and thirsting
To hear it like the rest.
And when, in scenes of glory,
I sing the NEW, NEW SONG,
'Twill be the OLD, OLD STORY
That I have loved so long.—СНО.

{ Prais-es we're bringing to Je-sus, Al-mighty and Roy-al! }
 { O my soul, ren-der thy voice to the heav-en-ly cho-ral! }

Throng-ing a-bout; Psalt-ry and harp a-wake out;

Let this praise song be heard o'er all. A-men.

2 Praises to Jesus, my soul! for thy wonderful saving;
 His be the glory from Abraham's seed and all living!
 He is thy light! Think thou, my soul, of His right;
 Close with Amen the thanksgiving.

3 Angels and archangels, with your high music we're blending
 Shouts of Redemption, as up to your ranks we're ascending:
 Onward we go; Conquerors o'er the last foe;
 Swelling the chorus unending! Amen.

Bless-ed foun-tain, full of grace! Grace for sin-ners, grace for me,

Love.

To this source a - lone I trace What I am, and hope to be.

- 2 What I am, as one redeemed,
 Saved and rescued by the Lord;
 Hating what I once esteemed,
 Loving what I once abhorred.
- 3 What I hope to be ere long,
 When I take my place above;
 When I join the heavenly throng;
 When I see the God of love.
- 4 Then I hope like Him to be,
 Who redeemed His saints from sin,
 Who I now obscurely see,
 Through a veil that stands between.
- 5 Blesséd fountain, full of grace!
 Grace for sinners, grace for me;
 To this source alone I trace
 What I am, and hope to be.

- SAVIOUR! teach me, day by day,
 Love's sweet lesson to obey;
 Sweeter lesson cannot be,
 Loving Him who first loved me.
- 2 With a childlike heart of love,
 At Thy bidding may I move;
 Prompt to serve and follow Thee,
 Loving Him who first loved me.
- 3 Teach me all Thy steps to trace,
 Strong to follow in Thy grace;
 Learning how to love from Thee,
 Loving Him who first loved me.
- 4 Thus may I rejoice to show
 That I feel the love I owe;
 Singing, till Thy face I see,
 Of His love who first loved me.

Art thou weary, art thou languid? Art thou sore distressed? "Come to Me," saith One, "and coming, Be at rest."

- 2 Hath He marks to lead me to Him,
 If He be my Guide?—
 "In His feet and hands are wound-prints,
 And His side."
- 3 If I find Him, if I follow,
 What his guerdon here?—
 "Many a sorrow, many a labor,
 Many a tear."
- 4 If I still hold closely to Him,
 What hath He at last?—
 "Sorrow vanquished, labor ended,
 Jordan passed."
- 5 If I ask Him to receive me,
 Will He say me nay?
 "Not till earth, and not till heaven Pass away."

The third and final system of musical notation. It begins with a forte (f) dynamic and includes a dim e rall. (diminuendo and rallentando) instruction. The melody concludes with a final cadence. The lyrics 'healed, The life - long bleed - ing of the soul be o'er. A - men.' are written below the treble staff.

- 2 Abide in me; o'ershadow by Thy love
Each half-formed purpose and dark thought of sin;
Quench ere it rise, each selfish, low desire,
And keep my soul as Thine,—calm and divine.
- 3 As some rare perfume in a vase of clay,
Pervades it with a fragrance not its own,
So, when Thou dwellest in a mortal soul,
All heaven's own sweetness seems around it thrown.
- 4 Abide in me: there have been moments blest,
When I have heard Thy voice and felt Thy power;
Then evil lost its grasp; and passion hushed,
Owned the divine enchantment of the hour.
- 5 These were but seasons beautiful and rare;
Abide in me, and they shall ever be;
Fulfil at once Thy precept and my prayer,
Come, and abide in me, and I in Thee.

Stand up, my soul! shake off thy fears, And gird the gos- pel ar- mor on,

March to the gates of end- less joy, Where Je- sus, Thy great Captain's gone.

- 2 Hell and thy sins resist thy course,
But hell and sin are vanquished foes,
Thy Jesus nailed them to the cross.
And sung the triumph when He rose.
- 3 Then let my soul march boldly on,
Press forward to the heavenly gate,
There peace and joy eternal reign,
And glittering robes for conquerors wait.
- 4 There shall I wear a starry crown,
And triumph in almighty grace,
While all the armies of the skies,
Join in my glorious Leader's praise.

- THE oath and promise of the Lord
Join to confirm His wondrous grace;
Eternal power performs the word,
And fills all heaven with endless praise.
- 2 Amid temptations, sharp and long,
My soul to this dear refuge flies;
Hope is my anchor, firm and strong,
While tempests blow, and billows rise.
- 3 The gospel bears my spirit up;
A faithful and unchanging God
Lays the foundation for my hope,
In oaths, and promises, and blood.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

- THOU, Saviour! art the living bread;
Thou wilt my every want supply;
Be Thee sustained, and cheered, and led,
I'll press through dangers to the sky.
- 2 What, though temptations oft distress,
And sin assails and breaks my peace?
Thou wilt uphold, and save, and bless,
And bid the storms of passion cease.
- 3 Then let me take Thy gracious hand,
And walk beside Thee onward still;
Till my glad feet shall safely stand,
For ever firm, on Zion's hill.

- O God! thou art my God alone;
Early to thee my soul shall cry;
A pilgrim in a land unknown,
A thirsty land, whose springs are dry,

I follow hard on Thee, my God!
Thy hand unseen upholds my ways,
I safely tread where Thou hast trod.

Dearer than all beside to me;
For whom have I in heaven above,
Or what on earth, compared with Thee?

2 Soon will my pilgrimage end here below,
Home to that land of delight will I go;
Pilgrim and stranger no more shall I roam,
Joyfully, joyfully, resting at home,

3 Sounds of sweet melody fall on my ear;
Harps of the blessed, your voices I hear;
Rings with the harmony heaven's high dome,—
Joyfully, joyfully, haste to thy home.

4 Death, with thy weapons of war lay me low,
Strike, king of terrors, I fear not the blow;
Jesus hath broken the bars of the tomb!
Joyfully, joyfully, will I go home.

Death shall be banished, his scepter be gone;
Joyfully, then, shall I witness his doom,
Joyfully, joyfully, safely at home.

2 Though in a foreign land,
We are not far from home;
And, nearer to our house above,

3 His grace will, to the end,
Stronger and brighter shine;
Nor present things, nor things to come,
Shall quench the spark divine.

4 The people of His choice
He will not cast away;
Yet do not always here expect
On Tabor's mount to stay.

5 When we in darkness walk,
Nor feel the heavenly flame;
Then is the time to trust our God,
And rest upon His name.

6 Soon shall our doubts and fears
Subside at His control;
His loving kindness shall break through
The midnight of the soul.

7 Still on His plighted love
At all events rely;
The very hidings of His face
Shall train thee up to joy.

That stays himself on Thee:—
Who waits for Thy salvation, Lord!
Shall Thy salvation see.

Oh! what, if we are Christ's,
Is earthly shame or loss?
Bright shall the crown of glory be,
When we have borne the cross.

2 Keen was the trial once,
Bitter the cup of woe,
When martyred saints, baptized in blood,
Christ's sufferings shared below.

3 Bright is their glory now,
Boundless their joy above,
Where on the bosom of their God,
They rest in perfect love,

4 Lord! may that grace be ours,
Like them, in faith, to bear
All that of sorrow, grief, or pain
May be our portion here.

The word of blessing give,
And let us rest beneath Thy feet,
Where saints and angels live.

Je - sus! the ver - y thought of Thee With sweetness fills my breast;

But sweet-er far Thy face to see, And in Thy presence rest.

2 Nor voice can sing, nor heart can frame,
Nor can the mem'ry find,
A sweeter sound than Thy blest name,
O Saviour of mankind!
3 O Hope of every contrite heart!
O Joy of all the meek!
To those who fall, how kind Thou art!
How good to those who seek!
4 But what to those who find? Ah! this
Nor tongue nor pen can show:
The love of Jesus,—what it is,
None but His loved ones know.
5 Jesus! our only joy be Thou,
As Thou our prize wilt be;
Jesus! be Thou our glory now,
And through eternity!

THOU lovely Source of true delight,
Whom I unseen adore!
Unveil Thy beauties to my sight;
That I may love Thee more.
2 Thy glory o'er creation shines;
But, in Thy sacred word,
I read, in fairer, brighter lines,
My bleeding, dying Lord.

3 'Tis here, when'er my comforts droop,
And sins and sorrows rise,
Thy love, with cheerful beams of hope,
My fainting heart supplies.
4 But, ah! too soon the pleasing scene
Is clouded o'er with pain;
My gloomy fears rise dark between,
And I again complain.
5 Jesus, my Lord, my life, my light!
Oh! come with blissful ray;
Break radiant through the shades of night,
And chase my fears away.

O LORD! how happy should we be,
If we could cast our care on Thee,
If we from self could rest;
And feel, at heart, that One above,
In perfect wisdom, perfect love,

2 How far from this our daily life,
Ever disturbed by anxious strife,
By sudden, wild alarms!

Oh! could we but relinquish all
Our earthly props, and simply fall
On Thine almighty arms!—

3 Could we but kneel, and cast our load,
E'en while we pray, upon our God,
From self entirely cease,
Leave all things to a Father's will,
And taste, before Him lying still,
E'en in affliction, peace.

A pilgrim and a stranger, I journey here below; Far dis-tant is my country, The home to which I go: Here I must toil and travail, Oft wear-y and oppressed, But there my God shall lead me To ev-er-lasting rest.

2 It is a well-worn pathway;
 Many have gone before,—
 The holy saints and prophets,
 The patriarchs of yore;
 They trod the toilsome journey,
 In patience and in faith,
 And them I fain would follow,
 Like them in life and death.

3 With them my thoughts are dwelling,
 'Tis there I long to be;
 Come, Lord! and call Thy servant
 To blessedness with Thee!

Come, bid my toils be ended,
 Let all my wanderings cease;
 Call from the wayside lodging,
 To the sweet home of peace!

4 There I shall dwell for ever,
 No more a stranger guest,
 With all Thy blood-bought children,
 In everlasting rest:
 The pilgrim toils forgotten,
 The pilgrim conflicts o'er,
 All earthly griefs behind us,
 Eternal joys before!

We bless Thee for Thy peace, O God! Deep as the soundless sea,

Which falls like sun-shine on the road Of those who trust in Thee;—

Trusts where it cannot see,
Deems not the trial way too long,
But leaves the end with Thee;

3 That peace which flows serene and deep,
A river in the soul,
Whose banks a living verdure keep;
God's sunshine o'er the whole.

Prayer is the soul's sin - cere de - sire, Un - ut - tered or ex - pressed;
The mo - tion of a hid - den fire, That trembles in the breast.

Prayer.

2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear,
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near.

3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech,
That infant lips can try;
Prayer, the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.

4 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air;
His watchword at the gates of death;
He enters heaven with prayer.

5 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice,
Returning from his ways;
While angels in their songs rejoice,
And cry—"Behold he prays!"

6 O Thou, by whom we come to God,—
The Life, the Truth, the Way!
The path of prayer Thyself hast trod;
Lord! teach us how to pray.

James Montgomery, 1819.

O THOU, who hast Thy servants taught
That not by words alone,
But by the fruits of holiness,
The life of God is shown!

2 While in Thy house of prayer we meet,
And call Thee God and Lord,
Give us a heart to follow Thee,
Obedient to Thy word.

3 Through all the dangerous paths of life,
Uphold us as we go,
That with our lips, and in our lives,

Come, my soul! thy suit pre- pare; Je- sus loves to an- swer prayer:

He Him- self has bid thee pray, There- fore will not say thee nay.

2 Thou art coming to a King,
Large petitions with thee bring;
For His grace and power are such,
None can ever ask too much.

3 With my burden I begin,
Lord! remove this load of sin;
Let Thy blood, for sinners spilt,
Set my conscience free from guilt.

4 Lord! I come to Thee for rest,
Take possession of my breast;
There Thy blood-bought right maintain,
And without a rival reign.

5 While I am a pilgrim here,
Let Thy love my spirit cheer;
As my Guide, my Guard, my Friend,
Lead me to my journey's end.

432 Mercy-Seat. I IS & IOS.

JOSEPH BARNBY, 1872.

Andante.

Thou knowest, Lord, the wea - ri - ness and sor - row Of the sad heart that comes to Thee for rest; Cares of to - day, and burdens for to - mor - row, lento.

Blessings im - plored, and sins to be con - fessed; We come be - fore Thee

at Thy gracious word, And lay them at Thy feet; Thou knowest, Lord. A - men.

- 2 Thou knowest all the past; how long and blindly
On the dark mountains the lost wanderer strayed;
How the good Shepherd followed, and how kindly
He bore it home, upon His Shoulders laid;
And healed the bleeding wounds, and soothed the pain,
And brought back life, and hope, and strength again
- 3 Thou knowest all the present; each temptation,
Each toilsome duty, each foreboding fear;
All to each one assigned of tribulation,
Or to beloved ones, than self more dear;

Prayer.

All pensive memories, as we journey on,
Longings for vanished smiles and voices gone.

4 Thou knowest all the future; gleams of gladness
By stormy clouds too quickly overcast;
Hours of sweet fellowship and parting sadness,
And the dark river to be crossed at last.
Oh! what could hope and confidence afford
To tread that path; but this, Thou knowest Lord!

5 Thou knowest, not alone as God, all-knowing;
As Man, our mortal weakness Thou hast proved:
On earth, with purest sympathies o'erflowing,
O Saviour, Thou hast wept, and Thou hast loved;
And love and sorrow still to Thee may come,
And find a hiding-place, a rest, a home.

6 Therefore we come, Thy gentle call obeying,
And lay our sins and sorrows at Thy feet;
On everlasting strength our weakness staying,
Clothed in Thy robe of righteousness complete:
Then rising and refreshed, we leave Thy throne,
And follow on to know as we are known. Amen.

THOMAS HASTINGS, 1840.

From ev - ery stormy wind that blows, From ev - ery swelling tide of woes,

There is a calm, a sure re - treat;— 'Tis found be - neath the mer - cy - seat.

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads,
A place, than all besides, more sweet;
It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.

3 There is a spot where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
Though sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat.

4 There, there, on eagle wings we soar,
And time, and sense seem all no more;
And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat.

5 Oh! may my hand forget her skill,
My tongue be silent, cold, and still,
This bounding heart forget to beat,
If I forget the mercy-seat!

Hugh Stowell, 1827.

435

HAST thou within a care so deep,
It chases from thine eyelids sleep?
To thy Redeemer take that care,
And change anxiety to prayer.

2 Hast thou a hope, from which thy heart
Would almost feel it death to part?
Entreat thy God that hope to crown,
Or give thee strength to lay it down.

3 Hast thou a friend, whose image dear
May prove an idol worshiped here?
Implore the Lord, that naught may be
A shade between Himself and thee.

4 Whate'er the care that breaks thy rest,
Whate'er the wish that swells thy breast,
Present to God that wish, that care,
And change anxiety to prayer.

WHERE high the heavenly temple stands,
The house of God not made with hands,
A great High Priest our nature wears,—
The Guardian of mankind appears.

2 Though now ascended up on high,
He bends on earth a brother's eye;
Partaker of the human name,
He knows the frailty of our frame.

3 Our Fellow-Sufferer yet retains
A fellow-feeling of our pains;
And still remembers, in the skies,
His tears, His agonies, and cries.

4 In every pang that rends the heart,
The Man of sorrows had a part;
He sympathizes with our grief,
And to the sufferer sends relief.

HUBERT P. MAIN, 1869.

Oh! could I find from day to day, A nearness to my God;

Then should my hours glide sweet a - way, And live up - on Thy word.

2 Lord! I desire with Thee to live,
Anew from day to day,
In joys the world can never give,
Nor ever take away.

3 O Jesus! come and rule my heart,
And I'll be wholly thine;
And never, never more depart;
For Thou art wholly mine.

4 Thus, till my last expiring breath,
Thy goodness I'll adore;
And, when my flesh dissolves in death,
My soul shall love Thee more.

Benjamin Cleveland, 1790, a.

4 Pray till thy Lord's own strength is thine!
Still sweetly, strongly pray!
For ever breathe the air divine!
Clasp thy dear Lord always!

Thomas H. Gill, 1856.

438

How CAN I, Lord, abide with Thee,
Unless with Thee I speak?
How can I love Thee verily,
And not Thy converse seek?

2 Doth not my soul, dear Lord, decline,
Whene'er I faintly pray?—
When on that outstretched hand of Thine
My doubting hand I lay?

3 My life were stopped, if prayer should
O soul of mine pray on! [fail,
Pray, weakling, till thou dost prevail,
Pray till thy tears are gone!

439

ALONE with Thee, with Thee alone,
I breathe the heavenly air;
Lord, what sweet wonders Thou hast shown
Thy lonely worshipper!

2 Thou takest this rapt soul apart
Into Thy secret place;
Thou keepest for this yearning heart
The fullness of Thy grace.

3 For these blest eyes thou openest
Full many a deep divine;
In these glad ears thou whisperest
Some secret sweet of Thine.

4 The solitude, how populous!
My Lord doth full appear;
The silence, how melodious!
My Lord alone I hear.

5 O Lord, my God, mine all, mine own,
Still grant these visits sweet;
Still meet Thy lover all alone!
These blessed hours repeat.

SWEET the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the cross I spend,
Life, and health, and peace possessing,
From the sinner's dying Friend!
Here I'll sit, for ever viewing
Mercy's streams in streams of blood:
Precious drops! my soul bedewing,
Plead, and claim my peace, with God.

2 Here it is I find my heaven,
While upon the Lamb I gaze;
Love I much?—I've much forgiven,—
I'm a miracle of grace.
Love and grief my heart dividing,
With my tears His feet I'll bathe;
Constant still in faith abiding,—
Life deriving from His death.

Hark! hark! to God the chorus breaks, From ev - ery host, from ev - ery gem;

But one a - lone the Saviour speaks;— It is the STAR OF BETH - LE - HEM,

2 Once on the raging seas I rode;
The storm was loud, the night was dark;
The ocean yawned, and rudely blowed
The wind, that tossed my foundering bark:
Deep horror then my vitals froze;
Death-struck, I ceased the tide to stem;
When suddenly a star arose;—
It was the STAR OF BETHLEHEM.

3 It was my guide, my light, my all;
It bade my dark forebodings cease;
And, thro the storm, and danger's thrall,
It led me to the port of peace:
Now, safely moored, my peril's o'er,
I'll sing, first in night's diadem,
For ever and for evermore,
The STAR—THE STAR OF BETHLEHEM!

And so at last receive from Thee
The palm and crown of victory.

2 Come, ever blesséd Spirit, come,
And make Thy servant's heart Thy home;
May each a living temple be,
Hallow'd for ever, Lord, to Thee;
Enrich that temple's holy shrine
With sevenfold gifts of grace divine;

Oh, deem not they are blest a - lone, Whose lives a peace-ful ten - or keep;

For God, who pit - ies man, hath shown A blessing for the eyes that weep.

2 The light of smiles shall fill again
The lids that overflow with tears;
And weary hours of woe and pain
Are promises of happy years.

3 There is a day of sunny rest
For every dark and troubled night;
And grief may bide an evening guest.
But joy shall come with early light.

4 Nor let the good man's trust depart,
Though life its common gifts deny;
And spurned of men, he goes to die.

5 For God has marked each sorrowing day
And numbered every secret tear,
And heaven's long age of bliss shall pay,
For all His children suffered here.

William Cullen Bryant, 1824.

If life in sorrow must be spent,
So be it; I am well content;
And meekly wait my last remove,
Desiring only trustful love.

2 No bliss I'll seek, but to fulfil
In life, in death, Thy perfect will;
No succor in my woes I want,
But what my Lord is pleased to grant.

3 Our days are numbered; let us spare
Our anxious hearts a needless care;
'Tis Thine to number out our days;
'Tis ours to give them to Thy praise.

4 Faith is our only business here—
Faith, simple, constant, and sincere;
Oh, blessed days Thy servants see!
Thus spent, O Lord! in pleasing Thee.

Madame Guyon, 1710.

FRIEND of the friendless and the faint!
Where shall I lodge my deep complaint?
Where, but with Thee, whose open door
Invites the helpless and the poor?

2 Did ever mourner plead with Thee,
And Thou refuse that mourner's plea?
Does not the word still fixed remain,
That none shall seek Thy face in vain?

3 That were a grief I could not bear,
Didst Thou not hear and answer prayer;
But a prayer-hearing, answering God
Supports me under every load.

4 Poor though I am, despised, forgot,
Yet God, my God, forgets me not;
And he is safe, and must succeed,
For whom the Lord vouchsafes to plead.

The chang-es that will sure-ly come I do not fear to see;

I ask Thee for a pres-ent mind, In-tent on pleas-ing Thee.

2 I would not have the restless will
That hurries to and fro,
Seeking for some great thing to do,
Or secret thing to know:
I would be treated as a child,
And guided where I go.

3 And if some things I do not ask
Among my blessings be,
I'd have my spirit filled the more
With grateful love to Thee;
More careful, not to serve Thee much,
But please Thee perfectly.

4 Briars and thorns beset my path
That call for patient care;
There is a cross in every lot,
And earnest need for prayer;
But lowly hearts, that lean on Thee,
Are happy anywhere.

5 In service which Thy will appoints
There are no bonds for me;
My inmost heart is taught the truth
That makes Thy children free;
A life of self-renouncing love
Is one of liberty.

Sav-our, a-gain to Thy dear name we raise With one accord our part-ing hymn of praise; Once more we bless Thee ere our wor-ship cease, Then, low-ly stoop-ing, wait Thy word of peace.

2 Grant us Thy peace upon our homeward way;
With Thee began, with Thee shall end the day;
Guard Thou the lips from sin, the hearts from shame,
That in this house have called upon Thy name.

3 Grant us Thy peace throughout our earthly life,
Our balm in sorrow, and our stay in strife;
Then, when Thy voice shall bid our conflict cease,
Call us, O Lord, to Thine eternal peace.

The Lord's Supper.

506 Spanish Hymn. 7s.

Spanish Melody.

Musical score for 'The Lord's Supper'. It consists of two systems of music, each with a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The key signature is two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The first system ends with the word 'FINE.' in the upper right corner. The second system ends with 'D. C.' in the upper right corner. The lyrics are printed below the vocal lines.

Bless-ed are the sons of God; They are bought with Christ's own blood;
D. C. With them numbered may we be, Here, and in e - ter - ni - ty.

They are ran-somed from the grave; Life e - ter - nal they shall have!

2 They are justified by grace;
They enjoy a solid peace;
All their sins are washed away;
They shall stand in God's great day:
With them numbered may we be,
Here, and in eternity.

3 They are lights upon the earth,—
Children of a heavenly birth,—
One with God, with Jesus one;
Glory is in them begun:
With them numbered may we be,
Here, and in eternity.

Joseph Humphreys, 1743. ab.

3 All who bear the Saviour's name,
Here their common faith proclaim;
Though diverse in tongue or rite,
Here, one body we unite;
Breaking thus one mystic bread,
Members of one common Head.

4 Come, the blessed emblems share,
Which the Saviour's death declare;
Come, on truth immortal feed;
For His flesh is meat indeed:
Saviour! witness with the sign,
That our ransomed souls are Thine.

Josiah Conder, 1836. alt.

507

MANY centuries have fled
Since our Saviour broke the bread,
And this sacred feast ordained,
Ever by His church retained:
Those His body who discern,
Thus shall meet till His return.

2 Through the churches' long eclipse,
When, from priest or pastor's lips,
Truth divine was never heard,—
'Mid the famine of the word,
Still these symbols witness gave
To His love who died to save.

508

"TILL He come:" oh, let the words
Linger on the trembling chords;
Let the little while between
In their golden light be seen;
Let us think how heaven and home
Lie beyond that—"Till He come."

2 See, the feast of love is spread,
Drink the wine, and break the bread;
Sweet memorials,—till the Lord
Call us round His heavenly board;
Some from earth, from glory some,
Severed only—"Till He come."

When this pass - ing world is done, When has sunk you glo - rious sun;
 When I stand with Christ in light, All my fin - ished life in sight:
 Then, Lord! shall I ful - ly know— Not till then—how much I owe!

2 When I stand before the throne
 Clothed in beauty not my own,
 When I see Thee as Thou art,
 Love Thee with un sinning heart,
 Then, Lord! shall I fully know—
 Not till then—how much I owe!

3 When the praise of heaven I hear
 Loud as thunders to the ear,
 Loud as many waters' noise,
 Sweet as harps' melodious voice,
 Then, Lord! shall I fully know—
 Not till then—how much I owe!

4 Chosen not for good in me,
 Wakened up from wrath to flee,
 Hidden in the Saviour's side,
 By the Spirit sanctified,
 Teach me, Lord! on earth to show
 By my love how much I owe.

Robert M. McCheyne, 1837.

CHRIST, whose glory fill the skies!
 Christ, the true, the only Light!
 Sun of righteousness! arise,
 Triumph o'er the shades of night:
 Dayspring from on high! be near;
 Daystar! in my heart appear.

2 Dark and cheerless is the morn,
 Unaccompanied by Thee;
 Joyless is the day's return,
 Till Thy mercy's beams I see:
 Till they inward light impart,
 Glad my eyes, and warm my heart.

3 Visit then this soul of mine;
 Pierce the gloom of sin and grief;
 Fill me, Radiancy divine!
 Scatter all my unbelief:
 More and more Thyself display,
 Shining to the perfect day.

Lamb of God! whose dy - ing love We now re - call to mind,

Send the an - swer from a - bove, And let us mer - cy find:
D.S.—Oh! re - mem - ber Cal - va - ry, And bid us go in peace!

Think on us who think on Thee, And ev - ery struggling soul re - lease;

2 By Thine agonizing pain,
And bloody sweat, we pray,—
By Thy dying love to man,—
Take all our sins away:
Burst our bonds, and set us free;
From all iniquity release;
Oh, remember Calvary,
And bid us go in peace!

3 Let Thy blood, by faith applied,
The sinner's pardon seal;
Speak us freely justified,
And all our sickness heal:
By Thy passion on the tree,
Let all our griefs and troubles cease;
Oh, remember Calvary,
And bid us go in peace!

Charles Wesley, 1745.

OTHER knowledge I disdain;
'Tis all but vanity:
Christ, the Lamb of God, was slain,—
He tasted death for me.
Me to save from endless woe
The sin-atonng Victim died:
Only Jesus will I know,
And Jesus crucified.

2 Him to know is life and peace,
And pleasure without end;
This is all my happiness,
On Jesus to depend;
Daily in His grace to grow,
And ever in His faith abide;
Only Jesus will I know,
And Jesus Crucified.

Grace,—'tis a charm - ing sound, Har - mo - nious to mine ear;
Heaven with the ech - o shall re - sound, And all the earth shall hear.

2 Grace first contrived a way
To save rebellious man;
And all the steps that grace display,
Which drew the wondrous plan.

3 Grace led my wandering feet
To tread the heavenly road;
And new supplies each hour I meet,
While pressing on to God.

4 Grace all the work shall crown,
Through everlasting days;
It lays in heaven the topmost stone,
And well deserves the praise.

Philip Doddridge, 1740.

514

SWEET feast of love divine!
'Tis grace that makes us free
To feed upon this bread and wine,
In mem'ry, Lord! of Thee.

2 That blood, that flowed for sin,
In symbol here we see,
And feel the blesséd pledge within,
That we are loved of Thee.

3 Oh! if this glimpse of love
Is so divinely sweet,
What will it be, O Lord! above,
Thy gladdening smile to meet?—

17

4 To see Thee face to face,
Thy perfect likeness wear,
And all Thy ways of wondrous grace
Through endless years declare!

Edward Denny, 1839.

515

JESUS, we thus obey
Thy last and kindest word,
And in thine own appointed way
We come to meet Thee, Lord!

2 Thus we remember Thee,
And take this bread and wine
As Thine own dying legacy,
And our redemption's sign.

3 Thy presence makes the feast;
Now let our spirits feel
The glory not to be expressed,—
The joy unspeakable!

4 With high and heavenly bliss
Thou dost our spirits cheer;
Thy house of banqueting is this,
And Thou hast brought us here.

5 Now let our souls be fed
With manna from above,
And over us Thy banner spread
Of everlasting love.

At the Lamb's high feast, we sing Praise to our vic - to - rious King,

Who hath washed us in the tide Flow - ing from His pierc - ed side.

2 Praise we Him, whose love divine
Gives His sacred blood for wine,
Gives His body for the feast,—
Christ, the Victim,—Christ, the Priest.

3 Where the paschal blood is poured,
Death's dark angel sheathes his sword;
Israel's hosts triumphant go,
Through the wave that drowns the foe.

4 Praise we Christ whose blood was shed,
Paschal Victim, paschal Bread;
With sincerity and love,
Eat we manna from above.

5 Mighty Victim from the sky!
Hell's fierce powers beneath Thee lie;
Thou hast conquered in the fight,
Thou hast brought us life and light.

Risen Lord! to Thee we raise;
Holy Father! praise to Thee,

*Lat., Roman Breviary.

Jesus speaks, and speaks to thee,
"Say, poor sinner, lovest thou Me?"

2 "I delivered thee when bound,
And when bleeding, healed thy wound:
Sought thee wandering, set thee right,
Turned thy darkness into light.

3 "Can a woman's tender care
Cease towards the child she bare?
Yes, she may forgetful be,
Yet will I remember thee.

4 "Mine is an unchanging love,
Higher than the heights above;
Deeper than the depths beneath—
Free and faithful—strong as death.

5 "Thou shalt see My glory soon,
When the work of grace is done;
Partner of My throne shalt be!
Say, poor sinner! lovest thou Me?"

6 Lord! it is my chief complaint,
That my love is weak and faint;
Yet I love Thee, and adore;—
Oh, for grace to love Thee more.

At Thy command, our dearest Lord! Here we attend Thy dying feast; Thy blood, like wine, adorns Thy board. And Thine own flesh feeds every guest, And Thine own flesh feeds every guest.

2 Our faith adores Thy bleeding love,
And trusts for life in One that died;
We hope for heavenly crowns above,
From a Redeemer crucified.

Jesus, the Saviour, is His name,
He freely loves, and without end.

3 Let the vain world pronounce it shame,
And fling their scandals on Thy cause;
We come to boast our Saviour's name,
And make our triumphs in His cross.

2 But ah! my inmost spirit mourns,
And well my eyes with tears may swim,
To think of my perverse returns,
I've been a faithless friend to Him.

4 With joy we tell the scoffing age,
He that was dead has left His tomb;
He lives above their utmost rage,
And we are waiting till He come.

3 Often my gracious Friend I grieve,
Neglect, distrust, and disobey;
And often Satan's lies believe
Sooner than all my Friend can say.

By Christ redeemed, in Christ restored, We keep the mem - o - ry a - dored,

And show the death of our dear Lord, Un - til He come.

2 His body broken in our stead
Is here, in this memorial bread;
And so our needy love is fed,
Until He come.

3 His fearful drops of agony,
His life-blood shed for us we see:
The cup shall tell the mystery,
Until He come.

4 And thus that dark betrayal night,
With the last advent we unite—
The shame, the glory, by this rite,
Until He come.

Je - sus, Thou Joy of lov - ing hearts! Thou Fount of life, Thou Light of men!

From the best bliss that earth imparts, We turn unfilled to Thee a - gain.

2 Thy truth unchanged hath ever stood;
Thou savest those that on Thee call;
To them that seek Thee, Thou art good,
To them that find Thee,—All in all!

3 We taste Thee, O Thou living Bread!
And long to feast upon Thee still;
We drink of Thee, the Fountain Head,
And thirst, our souls from Thee to fill.

4 Our restless spirits yearn for Thee,
Where'er our changeful lot is cast;
Glad, when Thy gracious smile we see,
Bless'd, when our faith can hold Thee fast.

5 O Jesus! ever with us stay;
Make all our moments calm and bright;
Chase the dark night of sin away;
Shed o'er the world Thy holy light.

- 2 While all our hearts, and all our songs,
Join to admire the feast;
Each of us cry, with thankful tongues,—
“Lord! why was I a guest?”
- 3 “Why was I made to hear Thy voice,
And enter while there's room,
When thousands make a wretched choice,
And rather starve than come?”
- 4 ’Twas the same love that spread the feast,
Compelled us sweetly in;
Else we had still refused to taste,
And perished in our sin.
- 5 Pity the nations, O our God!
Constrain the earth to come;
Send Thy victorious word abroad,
And bring the strangers home.
- 6 We long to see Thy churches full,
That all the chosen race
May, with one voice, and heart, and soul,
Sing Thy redeeming grace.

Isaac Watts, 1707.

- ARISE, my soul! my joyful powers!
And triumph in my God;
Awake, my voice! and loud proclaim
His glorious grace abroad.
- 2 He raised me from the deeps of sin,
The gates of gaping hell;
And fixed my standing more secure,
Than ’t was before I fell.
- 3 The arms of everlasting love,
Beneath my soul He placed;
And on the Rock of Ages set
My slippery footsteps fast.
- 4 Jesus the Lord, invites us here,
To His triumphal feast;
And brings immortal blessings down
For each redeeméd guest.
- 5 Arise, my soul! awake, my voice!
And tunes of pleasure sing;
Loud hallelujahs shall address
My Saviour and my King.

See! Je - sus stands, with o - pen arms; He calls;—He bids you come;

Guilt holds you back, and fear a - larms; But, see! there yet is room.

- 2 Room, in the Saviour's bleeding heart; 3 Dear dying Lamb! Thy precious blood
There love and pity meet; Shall never lose its power,
Nor will He bid the soul depart, Till all the ransomed church of God
That trembles at His feet. Be saved to sin no more.
- 3 Oh! come, and, with His children, taste 4 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream
The blessings of His love: Thy flowing wounds supply,
While hope attends the sweet repast Redeeming love has been my theme,
Of nobler joys above. And shall be, till I die.
- 4 There, with united heart and voice, 5 Then, in a nobler, sweeter song,
Before th' eternal throne, I'll sing Thy power to save,
Ten thousand thousand souls rejoice, When this poor lisping, stamm'ring tongue
In ecstasies unkuown. Lies silent in the grave.

Are welcome still to come;
Ye longing souls! the grace adore,
Approach, there yet is room.

THERE is a fountain filled with blood,
Drawn from Immanuel's veins;

My faith looks up to Thee, Thou Lamb of Cal-va-ry, Sav-iour divine! Now hear me while I pray, Take all my guilt a-way, Oh! let me from this day, Be whol-ly Thine!

2 May Thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart;
My zeal inspire;
As Thou hast died for me,
Oh! may my love to Thee
Pure, warm, and changeless be,
A living fire!

3 While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,

PEACE, peace I leave with you,
My peace I give to you,
Trust to My care!

Thus the Redeemer said,
And bowed His sacred head,
Lone in the garden shade,
Wrestling in prayer.

2 Peace, peace I leave with you,
My peace I give to you,
Perfect and pure;
Not as the world doth give,
Words that the soul deceive,
Ye who in Me believe
Shall rest secure.

3 Peace, peace, I leave with you,
My peace I give to you,
Though foes invade;
All power is given to Me,
I will your refuge be,
Now and eternally,
Be not dismayed!

To God,—the Father, Son,

VIRGIL C. TAYLOR, 1847.

Come, let us sing the song of songs; With hearts and voices swell the strain;

The hom-age which to Christ, belongs; "Wor-thy the Lamb, for He was slain!"

- 2 Slain to redeem us by His blood,
To cleanse from every sinful stain,
And make us kings and priests to God;
"Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!"
- 3 To Him who suffered on the tree,
Our souls, at His soul's price to gain,
All blessing, praise, and glory be!—
"Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!"
- 4 To Him, enthroned by filial right,
All power in heaven and earth pertain,
All honor, majesty, and might;—
"Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!"
- 5 Come, Holy Spirit! from on high,
Our faith, our hope, our love sustain,
Through life we sing, and dying, cry,—
"Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!"

James Montgomery, 1853.

545

Now to the Lord, that makes us know
The wonders of His dying love,
Be humble honors paid below.
And strains of nobler praise above.

- 2 'T was He that cleansed our foulest sins,
And washed us in His richest blood;
'T is He that makes us priests and kings,
And brings us rebels near to God.

- 3 To Jesus, our atoning Priest,
To Jesus, our superior King,
Be everlasting power confessed,
And every tongue His glory sing.
- 4 Behold on flying clouds He comes,
And every eye shall see Him move;
Tho with our sins we pierced Him once,
Still He displays His pard'ning love.
- 5 The unbelieving world shall wail,
While we rejoice to see the day;
Come, Lord! nor let Thy promise fail,
Nor let Thy chariots long delay.

Isaac Watts, 1707.

546

JESUS, Thou everlasting King!
Accept the tribute which we bring;
Accept the well-deserved renown,
And wear our praises as Thy crown.

- 2 Let every act of worship be,
Like our espousals, Lord! to Thee;—
Like the dear hour, when, from above,
We first received Thy pledge of love.
- 3 Each following minute as it flies,
Increase Thy praise, improve our joys;
Till we are raised to sing Thy name,
At the great supper of the Lamb.

- 2 I am not worthy to be thought Thy child,
Nor sit the last and lowest at Thy board;
Too long a wanderer and too oft beguiled,
I only ask one reconciling word.
- 3 And is not mercy Thy prerogative—
Free mercy, boundless, fathomless, divine?
Me, Lord!—the chief of sinners,—me forgive,
And Thine the greater glory,—only Thine.
- 4 I hear Thy voice; Thou bid'st me come and rest;
I come, I kneel, I clasp Thy piercéd feet;
Thou bid'st me take my place, a welcome guest,
Among Thy saints, and of Thy banquet eat.
- 5 My praise can only breathe itself in prayer,
My prayer can only lose itself in Thee,
Dwell Thou forever in my heart, and there,
Lord! let me sup with Thee: sup Thou with me.

The Lord's Supper.

548

- HERE, O my Lord, I see Thee face to face;
Here would I touch and handle things unseen;
Here grasp with firmer hand the eternal grace,
And all my weariness upon Thee lean.
- 2 Here would I feed upon the bread of God;
Here drink with Thee the royal wine of heaven;
Here would I lay aside each earthly load,
Here taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven.
- 3 This is the hour of banquet and of song,
This is the heavenly Table spread for me;
Here let me feast, and, feasting, still prolong
The brief bright hour of fellowship with Thee.
- 4 Too soon we rise; the symbols disappear;
The Feast, though not the Love, is past and gone;
The Bread and Wine remove; but Thou art here,
Nearer than ever; still my Shield and Sun.
- 5 I have no help but Thine; nor do I need
Another arm save Thine to lean upon:
It is enough, my Lord: enough, indeed;
My strength is in Thy might, Thy might alone.
- 6 I have no wisdom, save in Him Who is
My Wisdom and my Teacher, both in one;
No wisdom can I lack while Thou art wise,
No teaching do I crave, save Thine alone.
- 7 Mine is the sin, but Thine the Righteousness;
Mine is the guilt, but Thine the cleansing Blood;
Here is my robe, my refuge, and my peace,
Thy blood, Thy Righteousness, O Lord my God!
- 8 I know that deadly evils compass me,
Dark perils threaten, yet I would not fear,
Nor poorly shrink, nor feebly turn to flee;
Thou! O my Christ, art buckler, sword, and spear.
- 9 But see, the Pillar-Cloud is rising now,
And moving onward through the desert night;
It beckons, and I follow; for I know
It leads me to the heritage of Light.
- 10 Feast after feast thus comes, and passes by;
Yet, passing, points to the glad Feast above,
Giving sweet foretastes of the festal joy,
The Lamb's great bridal feast of bliss and love.

 'T is the gospel story pictured to our eyes,
 Ever in this service, till He comes in glory,
 Showing forth the Saviour's priceless sacrifice.

4 Then, O gracious Father, bent in reverence lowly,
 We would taste the pledges we so dearly prize,
 Food that none may dare to take with hands unholy,
 Feasting on the once accepted sacrifice.

5 Lo! the Lamb once offered reigneth now victorious,
 And the angel choirs adore His sacrifice!
 We too would adore Thee, Saviour, ever raising
 Praises to the Lamb who reigns above the skies. Amen.

A crown of brightest glory,
Which He shall sure bestow
On all who love the Saviour,

ONCE was heard the song of children,
 By the Saviour, when on earth;
 Joyful, in the sacred temple,
 Shouts of youthful praise had birth,
 And hosannas
 Loud to David's Son broke forth.

PRaise to God, immortal praise,
 For the love that crowns our days;
 Bounteous Source of every joy!
 Let Thy praise our tongues employ.

2 All that spring, with bounteous hand,
 Scatters o'er the smiling land,
 All that liberal autumn pours
 From her rich o'erflowing stores;—

577

SWELL the anthem, raise the song;
 Praises to our God belong;
 Saints and angels! join to sing,
 Praise to heaven's almighty King.

2 Blessings, from His liberal hand,
 Pour around this happy land;
 Let our hearts, beneath His sway,
 Hail the bright, triumphant day.

3 Here, beneath a virtuous sway,
 Lawful rulers we obey;
 Here, we feel no tyrant's rod,
 Here, we own and worship God.

The Church's one foun - da - tion Is Je - sus Christ her Lord;

She is His new cre - a - tion By wa - ter and the Word:

From heav'n He came and sought her, To be His ho - ly Bride;

With His own blood He bought her, And for her life He died.

2 Though with a scornful wonder,
Men see her sore opprest,
By schisms rent asunder,
By heresies distrest;
Yet saints their watch are keeping,
Their cry goes up, "How long?"
And soon the night of weeping
Shall be the morn of song.

3 'Mid toil and tribulation,

Her longing eyes are blest,

We all, O Lord, have gone astray, And wandered from Thy heavenly way: The wilds of 2 Hear us, great Shepherd of Thy sheep!

Our wanderings heal, our footsteps keep:
We seek Thy sheltering fold again,
Nor shall we seek Thee, Lord, in vain.

And with Thy presence fill the place.

3 Through all the mazes of my heart,
My search let heavenly wisdom guide,
And still its radiant beams impart,
Till all be searched and purified.

{ On the mountain's top ap-pear-ing, Lo! the sa-cred her-ald stands, }
 { Welcome news to Zi-on bear-ing— Zi-on, long in hos-tile lands; } Mourning captive! God Himself shall loose thy bands; Mourning captive! God Himself shall loose thy bands.

2 Has thy night been long and mournful?
 Have thy friends unfaithful proved?
 Have thy foes been proud and scornful,
 By thy sighs and tears unmoved?
 Cease thy mourning;
 Zion still is well beloved.

3 Every human tie may perish;
 Friend to friend unfaithful prove;
 Mothers cease their own to cherish;
 Heaven and earth at last remove:
 But no changes
 Can attend Jehovah's love.

4 In the furnace God may prove thee,
 Thence to bring thee forth more bright;
 But can never cease to love thee;
 Thou art precious in His sight;
 God is with thee—
 God, thine everlasting light.

5 Peace and joy shall now attend thee;
 All thy warfare now is past;
 God thy Saviour will defend thee;
 Victory is thine at last:
 All thy conflicts
 End in everlasting rest.

CHRIST is coming! let creation
 Bid her groans and travail cease:
 Let the glorious proclamation
 Hope restore and faith increase;
 Christ is coming!
 Come, Thon blesséd Prince of peace!

2 Earth can now but tell the story
 Of Thy bitter cross and pain;
 She shall yet behold Thy glory
 When Thon comest back to reign;
 Christ is coming!
 Let each heart repeat the strain.

3 Long Thy exiles have been pining,
 Far from rest, and home, and Thee:
 But, in heavenly vesture shining,
 Soon they shall Thy glory see;
 Christ is coming!
 Haste the joyous jubilee.

4 With that "blesséd hope" before us,
 Let no harp remain unstrung;
 Let the mighty advent chorus
 Onward roll from tongue to tongue;
 Christ is coming!
 Come, Lord Jesus, quickly come.

O'ER the gloomy hills of darkness,
Cheered by no celestial ray,
Sun of righteousness! arising,
Bring the bright, the glorious day;
Send the gospel,
To the earth's remotest bound.

2 Kingdoms wide that sit in darkness,—
Grant them, Lord! the glorious light;
And, from eastern coast to western,
May the morning chase the night;
And redemption,
Freely purchased, win the day.

3 Fly abroad, thou mighty gospel!
Win and conquer, never cease;
May thy lasting, wide dominions,
Multiply and still increase;
Sway Thy sceptre,

YES, we trust, the day is breaking;
Joyful times are near at hand;
God, the mighty God, is speaking
By His word in every land;
Mark His progress!
Darkness flies, at His command.

2 While the foe becomes more daring,
While he enters like a flood,
God, the Saviour, is preparing
Means to spread His truth abroad:
Every language
Soon shall tell the love of God.

3 God of Jacob, high and glorious!
Let Thy people see Thy hand;
Let the gospel be victorious,
Through the world, in every land;
Let the idols
Perish, Lord! at Thy command.

2 What, though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle;
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile?
In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strewn;
The heathen, in his blindness,
Bows down to wood and stone!

3 Can we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high,—
Can we, to men benighted,
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation, Oh! salvation!—
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till each remotest nation
Has learned Messiah's name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds! His story,
And you, ye waters! roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole;
Till, o'er our ransomed nature,
The Lamb, for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign!

Reginald Heber, 1819.

THE morning light is breaking;
The darkness disappears;
The sons of earth are waking
To penitential tears;
Each breeze, that sweeps the ocean,
Brings tidings, from afar,
Of nations in commotion,
Prepared for Zion's war.

2 See heathen nations bending
Before the God we love,
And thousand hearts ascending
In gratitude above;
While sinners, now confessing,
The gospel call obey,
And seek the Saviour's blessing,—
A nation in a day.

3 Blest river of salvation!
Pursue thine onward way;
Flow thou to every nation,
Nor in thy richness stay:—
Stay not, till all the lowly
Triumphant reach their home;
Stay not, till all the holy
Proclaim, "The Lord is come."

Wrestle, and fight, and pray;
Tread all the powers of darkness down,

In all His soldiers, "Come,"
Till Christ, the Lord, descends from high,

3 But Thou hast brethren here below,
The partners of Thy grace,
And wilt confess their humble names
Before Thy Father's face.

LORD! lead the way the Saviour went,
By lane and cell obscure,
And let love's treasure still be spent,
Like His, upon the poor.

2 Like Him, thro scenes of deep distress,
Who bore the world's sad weight,
We, in their crowded loneliness,
Would seek the desolate.

3 For Thou hast placed us side by side,
In this wide world of ill;
And, that Thy followers may be tried,

Wrong to man's blindfold eye.

2 Asleep in Jesus! Oh! how sweet
To be for such a slumber meet,
With holy confidence to sing—
That death has lost his venom'd sting!

3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest,
Whose waking is supremely blest;
No fear, no woe, shall dim that hour
That manifests the Saviour's power.

4 Asleep in Jesus! Oh! for me
May such a blissful refuge be!
Securely shall my ashes lie,
Waiting the summons from on high.

5 Asleep in Jesus! far from Thee
Thy kindred and their graves may be;
But thine is still a blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep.

TIMOTHY SWAN, 1800.

Why do we mourn de-part-ing friends, Or shake at death's a-larms?
 'Tis but the voice that Je-sus sends, To call them to His arms.

- 2 Are we not tending upward too,
 As fast as time can move?
 Nor would we wish the hours more slow,
 To keep us from our love.
- 3 Why should we tremble to convey
 Their bodies to the tomb?
 There the dear flesh of Jesus lay,
 And left a long perfume.
- 4 The graves of all His saints He bless'd,
 And softened every bed;
 Where should the dying members rest,
 But with their dying Head?
- 5 Thence He arose, ascending high,
 And showed our feet the way;
 Up to the Lord our flesh shall fly
 At the great rising day.

Isaac Watts, 1707.

670

- WHY should our tears in sorrow flow,
 When God recalls His own,
 And bids them leave a world of woe,
 For an immortal crown?
- 2 Is not e'en death a gain to those,
 Whose life to God was given?
 Gladly to earth their eyes they close,
 To open them in heaven.

- 3 Their toils are past—their work is done,
 And they are fully bless'd;
 They fought the fight, the viet'ry won,
 And entered into rest.
- 4 Then let our sorrows cease to flow,—
 God has recalled His own;
 But let our hearts, in every woe,
 Still say,—“Thy will be done!”

William H. Bathurst, 1829.

 Christ shall with shouts descend;
 And the last trumpet's awful voice
 The heavens and earth shall rend.
- 2 Then they who live shall changéd be,
 And they who sleep shall wake;
 The graves shall yield their ancieut charge,
 And earth's foundations shake.
- 3 The saints of God, from death set free,
 With joy shall mount on high;
 The heavenly host, with praises loud,
 Shall meet them in the sky.
- 4 Together to their Father's house,
 With joyful hearts, they go;
 And dwell for ever with the Lord,
 Beyond the reach of woe.

Be - hold the Bridegroom com - eth in the mid - dle of the night,

The first system of musical notation for the song 'Midnight Cry'. It consists of a treble and bass staff in 4/4 time. The melody is written in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: 'Be - hold the Bridegroom com - eth in the mid - dle of the night,'

And blest is he whose loins are girt, whose lamp is burn - ing bright;

The second system of musical notation. The melody continues in the treble clef, and the bass line provides accompaniment. The lyrics are: 'And blest is he whose loins are girt, whose lamp is burn - ing bright;'

But woe to that dull serv - ant, whom his Mas - ter shall sur - prise

The third system of musical notation. The melody continues in the treble clef, and the bass line provides accompaniment. The lyrics are: 'But woe to that dull serv - ant, whom his Mas - ter shall sur - prise'

With lamp untrimmed, un - burn - ing, and with slum - ber in his eyes.

The fourth system of musical notation. The melody continues in the treble clef, and the bass line provides accompaniment. The lyrics are: 'With lamp untrimmed, un - burn - ing, and with slum - ber in his eyes.'

2 That day, the day of fear, shall come; my soul slack not thy toil,
But light thy lamp, and feed it well, and make it bright with oil;
Who knowest not how soon may sound the cry at eventide,
"Behold the Bridegroom comes. Arise! go forth to meet the Bride."

3 Beware, my soul, take thou good heed, lest thou in slumber lie,
And, like the five, remain without, and knock, and vainly cry;
But watch, and bear thy lamp undimmed, and Christ shall gird thee on
His own bright wedding-robe of light, the glory of the Son.

Reign all around us, and within,
Let pain and sorrow die with sin.

Sing, Is - rael! for the Lord, your strength, Hath triumphed glo - rious - ly,

The Second Advent.

Rid - er and horse your fa - ther's God Hath thrown in - to the sea.

- 2 The floods were parted at Thy word,
The waters upright stood,
And through the depths, as by dry land,
Thy ransomed millions trod.
- 3 Foes with hot haste, and clamoring wrath,
Outstretched their angry hands;
But from His fists the watching God
Flung forth the gathered winds.
- 4 The mighty waters came again,
And down they sank as stone!
Thou—holy, fearful, wondrous Lord—
Art God!—and Thou alone.
- 5 Nations that hear shall fear and dread
The greatness of Thine arm,
And shall be still, till Israel pass
Secure from threatened harm.
- 6 Till all Thy purchased people pass
Up to Thy citadel,
The sure inheritance, O Lord!
Where saints in light shall dwell.
- 7 There as with voice of many seas,
Shall Israel sing again,
The Lord who triumphs gloriously,—
Who evermore shall reign.

M. Woolsey Stryker, 1878.

689 Austrian Hymn.. 8s & 7s.

F. J. HAYDN, 1797.

{ He is coming, He is coming. Not as once He came be-fore, }
{ Wailing infant, born in weakness on a low - ly sta - ble floor: } But up - on His cloud of glo - ry

In the crimson-tint - ed sky, Where we see the golden sun-rise In the ros - y distance lie.

- 2 He is coming, He is coming,
Not in pain, and shame and woe,
With the thorn-crown on His forehead,
And the blood-drops trickling slow;
But with diadem upon Him,
And the sceptre in His hand,
And the dead all ranged before Him,
Raised from death, hell, sea, and land.
- 3 He is coming, He is coming;
Let His lowly first estate,
And His tender love, so teach us
That in faith and hope we wait,
Till in glory eastward burning,
Our redemption draweth near;
And we see the sign in heaven
Of our Judge and Saviour dear.

Swedish Choral.

{ Awake, awake, O Zi - on! Put on thy strength divine; }
 { Thy garments bright in beauty, The bridal dress be thine; } Je - ru - sa - lem the ho - ly,

To pu - ri - ty restored. Meek Bride, all fair and low - ly. Go forth to meet thy Lord.

2 The Lamb who bore our sorrows,
 Comes down to earth again;
 No Sufferer now, but Victor,
 For evermore to reign;
 To reign in every nation,
 To rule in every zone:
 Oh, wide-world coronation,
 In every heart a throne.

3 Awake, awake, O Zion!
 The bridal day draws nigh,
 The day of signs and wonders,
 And marvels from on high:
 Thy sun uprises slowly,
 But keep thou watch and ward;
 Fair Bride, all pure and lowly,
 Go forth to meet thy Lord.

4 Lift up thy voice, O watchman!
 And shout, from Zion's towers,
 Thy hallelujah chorus,—
 "The victory is ours!"
 The Lord shall build up Zion
 In glory and renown,
 And Jesus, Judah's lion,
 Shall wear His rightful crown.

5 Break forth in hymns of gladness;
 O waste Jerusalem!
 Let songs, instead of sadness,
 Thy jubilee proclaim;
 The Lord, in strength victorious,
 Upon thy foes hath trod;
 Behold, O earth! the glorious
 Salvation of our God!

Benjamin Gough, 1865.

My soul, there is a country
 Afar beyond the stars,
 Where stands a winged sentry,
 All skilful in the wars.
 There, above noise and danger,
 Sweet Peace sits, crowned with smiles,
 And One, born in a manger,
 Commands the beauteous files.

2 If thou canst get but thither!
 There grows the flower of peace,
 The rose that cannot wither,
 Thy fortress and thine ease.
 Leave then thy foolish ranges,
 For none can thee secure,
 But One, who never changes,
 Thy God, thy Life, thy Cure.

2 Hallelujah!—hark!—the sound,
From the depths unto the skies,
Wakes, above, beneath, around,
All creation's harmonies:
See Jehovah's banners furled!
Sheathed His sword! He speaks—'tis
And the kingdoms of this world
Are the kingdoms of His Son.

3 He shall reign from pole to pole
With illimitable sway;
He shall reign, when, like a scroll,
Yonder heavens have passed away;
Then the end;—beneath His rod,
Man's last enemy shall fall;
Hallelujah!—Christ in God,
God in Christ, is all in all.

The world is ve - ry e - vil, The times are wax - ing late,

Be so - ber and keep vi - gil, The Judge is at the gate;

The Judge Who comes in mer - cy, The Judge Who comes with might,

Who comes to end the e - vil, Who comes to crown the right.

- 2 Arise, arise, good Christian,
Let right to wrong succeed;
Let penitential sorrow
To heavenly gladness lead,
To light that has no evening,
That knows nor moon nor sun,
The light so new and golden,
The light that is but one.
- 3 For now we fight the battle,
But then shall wear the crown
Of full and everlasting
And passionless renown.

- And He whom now we trust in Shall then be seen and known;
And they that know and see Him
Shall have Him for their own.
- 4 Behold the morn shall waken,
And shadows shall decay,
And each true-hearted servant
Shall shine as doth the day,
And God, our King and Portion,
In fullness of His grace,
Shall we behold for ever,
And worship face to face.

694 Luther's Hymn. 8s & 7s. P.

MARTIN LUTHER, 1535.

{ Great God! what do I see and hear? The end of things creat-ed; }
 { The Judge of man I see appear, On clouds of glo-ry seated; } The trumpet sounds, the gravesre-store The dead which they contained before; Prepare, my soul! to meet Him.

2 The dead in Christ shall first arise,
 At the last trumpet's sounding,
 Caught up to meet Him in the skies,
 With joy their Lord surrounding;
 No gloomy fears their souls dismay,
 His presence sheds eternal day
 On those prepared to meet Him.

3 And see!—they take the mansions bright,
 Where God prepared their dwelling;
 Like angels now;—and, to their sight,
 Their joys are onward swelling;
 They knew in part,—now, all is clear;
 Nor doubt, nor sorrow enters here,
 To break their bliss unceasing.

4 O God, to Thee our prayers we pour,
 In deep abasement bending;
 O shield us through the last dread hour,
 Thy wondrous love extending:
 May we, in this our trial day,
 With faithful hearts Christ's word obey,
 And thus prepare to meet Him.

v. 1 & 2. Tr. Wm. B. Collyer 1812.
 v. 3. Tr. Henry Mills, 1845.

Do Thou, Lord Jesus! by me stand;
 Let me not be forsaken:
 O Lord! my spirit I resign
 Into Thy loving hands divine;
 'Tis safe within Thy keeping.

2 Countless as sands upon the shore,
 My sins may then appall me;
 Yet, though my conscience vex me sore,
 Despair shall not enthrall me;
 For as I draw my latest breath,
 I'll think, Lord Christ! upon Thy death,
 And there find consolation.

3 I shall not in the grave remain,
 Since thou death's bonds hast severed,
 But hope with Thee to rise again,
 From fear of death delivered;
 I'll come to Thee, where'er Thou art,
 With Thee I'll live, and never part;
 Therefore I die in rapture.

4 And so to Jesus Christ I'll go,
 My longing arms extending;
 So fall asleep, in slumber deep,
 The sleep that knows no waking,—
 Till Jesus Christ, God's only Son,
 Opens the gates of bliss, leads on
 To heaven, to life eternal.

JOHN STAINER, 1871.

Day of wrath,—oh dread - ful day! When this world shall pass a - way;

The first system of musical notation for the hymn. It consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and a 4/4 time signature. The music starts with a piano (p) dynamic and includes accents over the first and third measures. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

And the heavens to - geth - er roll, Shrivelling like a parch-ed scroll,

The second system of musical notation. It continues with the same treble and bass staves. The treble staff has a forte (f) dynamic marking. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

When the Archangel's trumpet - tone Summons all be - fore the throne. A-men.

The third system of musical notation. It concludes with a double bar line. The treble staff has a piano (p) dynamic marking. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

2 Then the writing shall be read,
Which shall judge the quick and dead;
Then the Lord of all our race
Shall appoint to each his place;
Every wrong shall be set right,
Every secret brought to light.

3 King of kings, enthroned on high,
In Thine awful Majesty,
Thou Who of Thy mercy free
Savest those who saved shall be:
In Thy boundless charity,
Fount of pity, save Thou me.

4 Thou Who bad'st the sinner cease
From her tears, and go in peace;
Thou Who to the dying thief

Spakest pardon and relief;
Thou, O Lord, to me hast given,
E'en to me, the hope of heaven!

5 Naught of Thee my prayers can claim,
Save in Thy free mercy's name.
Worthless is each tear and cry:
Yet, Good Lord, in grace comply;
Make me with Thy sheep to stand,
Severed from the guilty band;

6 Full of tears, and full of dread,
Is the day that wakes the dead,
Calling all, with solemn blast,
From the ashes of the past;
Lord of Mercy, Jesus Blest,
Grant us Thine eternal rest. Amen.

Oh, day, for which creation
And all its tribes were made!
Oh, joy, for all its former woes
A thousand fold repaid!

3 Oh, then what raptured greetings
On Canaan's happy shore,
What knitting severed friendships up,
Where partings are no more!
Then eyes with joys shall sparkle,
That brimmed with tears of late,—
Orphans no longer fatherless,
Nor widows desolate.

The sands of time are wast-ing, The dawn of heaven breaks, The summer morn I've sighed for, The fair, sweet morn a-wakes. Oh, dark hath been the midnight,
But day-spring is at hand, And glo-ry, glo- ry dwelleth In Immanuel's land.

2 Oh! Christ He is the fountain;
The deep, sweet well of love;
The streams of earth I've tasted,
More deep I'll drink above.

There to an ocean fullness
His mercy doth expand,
And glory, glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

3 With mercy and with judgment,
My web of time He wove,
And aye the dews of sorrow
Were lustered with His love.
I'll bless the hand that guidéd,
I'll bless the heart that planned,
When throned where glory dwelleth,
In Immanuel's land.

4 Oh! I am my Beloved's,
And my Beloved's mine,
He brings a poor, vile sinner,
Into His house divine.
Upon the Rock of Ages
My soul redeemed shall stand,
Where glory, glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

5 The bride eyes not her garment,
But her dear bridegroom's face;

But on my King of Grace—
Not at the crown He giveth,
But on His piercé hand;—
The Lamb is all the glory
Of Immanuel's land.

O sweet and pleasant soil!
In thee no sorrow may be found,
No grief, no care, no toil.

And quit this desert sand.

3 Then welcome toil, and care, and pain!
And welcome sorrow, too!
All toil is rest, all grief is gain,
With such a prize in view.

G. F. ROOT, 1848, FR. J. C. H. RINCK.

{ There is a land of pure delight, Where saints immortal reign; }
In - fi - nite day excludes the night, And pleasures banish pain, { There ev - er - lasting spring abides,

And nev - er - with'ring flow'rs: Death, like a narrow sea, divides This heavenly land from ours.

2 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
Stand dressed in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.
But timorous mortals start and shrink
To cross this narrow sea;
And linger, shivering on the brink,
And fear to launch away.

3 Oh, could we make our doubts remove,
These gloomy doubts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love
With unbeckoned eyes:—
Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore.

Isaac Watts, 1707.

716

Lo! what a glorious sight appears
To our believing eyes;
The earth and seas are passed away,
And the old, rolling skies.
From the third heav'n, where God resides,
That holy, happy place,
The new Jerusalem comes down,
Adorned with shining grace.

2 "His own soft hand shall wipe the tears
From every weeping eye;
And pains and groans and griefs and fears
And death itself shall die."
How long, dear Saviour, oh how long
Shall this bright hour delay?
Fly swifter round, ye wheels of time,
And bring the welcome day.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

717

Nor eye has seen, nor ear has heard,
Nor sense, nor reason known,
What joys the Father has prepared,
For those that love the Son.
But the good Spirit of the Lord
Reveals a heaven to come:
The beams of glory, in His word,
Allure and guide us home.

2 Pure are the joys above the sky,
And all the region peace;
No wanton lips, nor envious eye,
Can see or taste the bliss.
Those holy gates for ever bar
Pollution, sin, and shame;
None can obtain admittance there
But fol'wers of the Lamb.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

718 Tranquillity. L. M.

JOHN MARSON.

Now let our souls, on wings sub-lime, Rise from the van-i-ties of time,
 Draw back the part-ing veil, and see The glo-ries of e-ter-ni-ty.

2 Shall aught beguile us on the road,
 While we are traveling back to God?
 For strangers into life we come,
 And dying is but going home.

3 As, when the weary traveler gains
 The height of some o'erlooking hill,
 His heart revives, if 'cross the plains
 He eyes his home, though distant still;

4 So, when the Christian pilgrim views,
 By faith, his mansion in the skies,
 The sight his fainting strength renews,
 And wings his speed to reach the prize.

v. 1 & 2, Thomas Gibbons, 1762.
 v. 3 & 4, John Newton, 1779.

HARK! how the choral song of heaven
 Swells, full of peace and joy, above;
 Hark! how they strike their golden harps,
 And raise the tuneful notes of love!

2 No anxious care, nor thrilling grief,
 No deep despair, nor gloomy woe
 They feel, while high their lofty strains
 In noblest, sweetest concord flow.

3 When shall we join the heavenly host,
 Who sing Immanuel's praise on high,
 And leave behind our fears and doubts,
 To swell the chorus of the sky?

Robert S. McAll, 1812.

720

LORD! Thou wilt bring the joyful day;
 Beyond earth's weariness and pains,
 Thou hast a mansion far away,
 Where, for Thine own, a rest remains.

2 No sun there climbs the morning sky,
 There never falls the shade of night,
 God and the Lamb, for ever nigh,
 O'er all shed everlasting light.

3 The bow of mercy spans the throne,—
 Emblem of love and goodness there;
 While notes, to mortals all unknown,
 Float on the calm celestial air.

4 Around the throne bright legions stand,
 Redeemed by blood from sin and hell;
 And shining forms, an angel band,
 The mighty chorus join to swell.

5 There, Lord! Thy way-worn saints shall find
 The bliss for which they longed before;
 And holiest sympathies shall bind
 Thine own to Thee for evermore.

6 O Jesus! bring us to that rest,
 Where all the ransomed shall be found,
 In Thine eternal fullness blessed,
 While ages roll their cycles round.

E - ternal day hath dawned; The Prince of Life is throned! Thro gates of amethyst,

Up to the heavenly feast, The Church of God, Purchased with blood, Pour in;—a ransomed throng, Up-lift-ing endless song; On ev-ery brow the name Brighter than diadem.

Copyright, 1881, by Biglow & Main.

2 These that confessed that Name,
These that despised the shame,
They have passed through the flood,
They stand before their God:
Kept they the faith;
Loved unto death.

White-robed in righteousness,
Transformed beneath His face,
Long as eternity,
The Blessed One they see.

3 God hath wiped every tear,
Ended all doubt and fear;
Crying and pain are o'er,
And death shall be no more;
All things are new:

Faithful and true,
The King of kings hath come,
Fetched all His banished home;
Jesus hath kept His word,—
The Bride is with her Lord!

4 Perfected peace at last!
Sin, curse, and woe, are past;
There is no longer night,
The Lamb doth give them light:
Immanuel

God all in all!
Lord! make our spirits thirst
Ever to be with Christ!
Hasten Thy Holy reign;
Come quickly, Lord! Amen.

What social joys are there, What radiancy of glo - ry, What light beyond compare.

2 They stand, those halls of Zion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng;
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

3 There is the throne of David;
And there, from care released,
The song of them that triumph,
The shout of them that feast:
And they, who with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
For ever and for ever
Are clad in robes of white.

724

O LAMB of God! still keep me
Near to Thy wounded side;
'Tis only there in safety
And peace can I abide!
What foes and snares surround me!
What doubts and fears within!
The grace that sought and found me,
Alone can keep me clean.

2 Soon shall my eyes behold Thee,
With rapture face to face;
One half hath not been told me
Of all Thy power and grace;
Thy beauty, Lord! and glory,
The wonders of Thy love,
Shall be the endless story
Of all Thy saints above.

James George Deck, 1857.

THERE is a laud immortal,
The beautiful of lands;
Beside its ancient portal
A silent sentry stands;
He only can undo it,
And open wide the door;
And mortals who pass through it,
Are mortal nevermore.

2 Though dark and drear the passage
That leadeth to the gate,
Yet grace comes with the message,
To souls that watch and wait;

And at the time appointed,
A messenger comes down,
And leads the Lord's anointed
From cross to glory's crown.

3 Their sighs are lost in singing,
They're blesséd in their tears;
Their journey heavenward winging,
They leave on earth their fears:
Death like an angel seemeth:
"We welcome thee," they cry;
Their face with glory beameth—
'Tis life for them to die!

Al - le - lu - ia! hark they sing, Praising loud their heavenly King. A - men.

2 These are they who have contended
For their Saviour's honor long,
Wrestling on till life was ended,
Following not the sinful throng;
These, who well the fight sustained,
Triumph by the Lamb have gained.

3 These are they whose hearts were riven,
Sore with woe and anguish tried,
Who in prayer full oft have striven
With the God they glorified:
Now, their painful conflict o'er,
God has bid them weep no more.

 Hast thou within a care so deep . . . 435
 Head of the Church triumphant 421
 Hear what God, the Lord, hath 704
 Hearts of stone! relent, relent 271
 He is coming; He is coming 689
 He is gone! and we remain 681
 He leadeth me, O blessed thought . . 457
 He lives, the great Redeemer lives . . 357
 Here at Thy table, Lord! we meet . . 522
 Here, O my Lord, I see Thee face . . . 548
 He, that goeth forth with weeping . . 573
 High in the heavens, eternal God . . . 104
 Holy and reverend is the name 133
 Holy, delightful day 53
 Holy Ghost! Holy Son 197
 Holy Ghost! my soul inspire 246
 Holy, holy, holy is the Lord 131
 Holy, holy, holy Lord 76
 Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty . . 5
 Hosanna! raise the pealing hymn . . . 148
 Hosanna we sing, like the children . . 561
 How are Thy servants bless'd, O 115
 How calm and beautiful the morn . . . 195
 How can I, Lord, abide with Thee . . . 438
 How firm a foundation, ye saints of . . 336
 How oft, alas! this wretched heart . . 298
 How pleasant, how divinely fair . . . 70
 How pleased and blessed was I 65
 How sad our state by nature is 253
 How sweet and awful is the place . . . 526
 How sweet, how heavenly is the 599
 How sweetly breaks the Sabbath 40
 How sweet the name of Jesus sounds . . 381
 How sweet, thro' long-remembered . . 15

 If Christ is mine, then all is mine . . 485
 If human kindness meets return . . . 530
 If life in sorrow must be spent 466
 If, thro' unruffled seas 368
 I heard the voice of Jesus say 329
 I lay me down to sleep 660
 I love my God, but with no love of . . 106
 I love Thy kingdom, Lord 592
 I love to kiss each print where Thou . . 486
 I love to steal awhile away 13
 I love to tell the story 397

Join all the glorious names.....	335

- Lord, Thy glory fills the heaven . . . 110
 Lord! 'tis not that I did choose Thee 391
 Lord! we come before Thee now . . . 58
 Lord! when my raptured thought . . . 114
 Lord! while for all mankind we pray 579
 Lord, with glowing heart I'd praise. 122
 Love divine, all love excelling 217
 Lo! what a glorious sight appears . . 716
- MAJESTIC sweetness sits enthroned. 376
 Maker of earth, to Thee alone 112
 Many centuries have fled 507
 Mary to the Saviour's tomb 334
 Meet and right it is to sing 80
 Mighty God, Thy church recover . . . 609
 Millions within Thy courts have met 34
 More love to Thee, O Christ 372
 Mortals! awake, with angels join . . 156
 Music! bring thy sweetest treasures 92
 My brethren, friends, and kinsmen . . 594
 My country, 'tis of thee 578
 My days are gliding swiftly by 700
 My dear Redeemer, and my Lord . . . 182
 My faith looks up to Thee 541
 My God! accept my heart this day . . 539
 My God and Father, while I stray . . . 471
 My God! how endless is Thy love . . . 4
 My God, how wonderful Thou art . . . 132
 My God, I love Thee, not because . . 388
 My God! is any hour so sweet 427
 My God, my everlasting hope 113
 My God, my King, Thy various 87
 My God, my Life, my Love 370
 My God! the covenant of Thy love . . 386
 My God! the spring of all my joys . 387
 My Jesus, as Thou wilt 469
 My Lord! how full of sweet content 351
 My Saviour! my almighty Friend . . . 117
 My sins, my sins, my Saviour 344
 My soul, be on thy guard 452
 My soul doth magnify the Lord 234
 My soul! how lovely is the place . . . 69
 My soul! repeat His praise 481
 My soul, there is a country 691
 My soul, weigh not thy life 639
 "My times are in Thy hand" 478
 My will, O Lord, to Thine I bow . . . 659
- NATURE with open volume stands . . 302
- Nearer, my God! to Thee 456
 Near the tomb where Christ hath . . . 193
 New every morning is the love 3
 No more, my God! I boast no more. 535
 Nor eye has seen, nor ear has heard. 717
 Not all the blood of beasts 339
 Not worthy, Lord, to gather up the. 547
 Now begin the heavenly theme 276
 Now I have found a Friend 710
 Now I resolve with all my heart . . . 537
 Now let our souls on wings sublime. 718
 Now may He, who, from the dead . . . 60
 Now, my soul! thy voice upraising. 338
 Now thank we all our God 580
 Now the day is over 12
 Now to the Lord a noble song 142
 Now to the Lord, that makes us . . . 545
 Now, with angels round the throne. 278
- O CHRIST! our King, Creator, Lord. 143
 O come, all ye faithful 168
 O come, dear child, along with me . . 552
 O day of rest and gladness 24
 O'er the distant mountains breaking 675
 O'er the gloomy hills of darkness . . 619
 O Father, Son, and Holy Ghost 540
 O God, all-terrible! Thou who 582
 O God beneath Thy guiding hand . . 581
 O God of mercy! hear my call 299
 O God! Thou art my God alone 406
 O holy, holy, holy Lord 74
 O Jesus Christ! if aught there be . . 390
 O Jesus! King most wonderful 380
 O Jesus, Lord of heavenly grace 9
 O Jesus, Saviour of the lost 297
 O Jesus! sweet the tears I shed 341
 O Jesus, Thou art standing 317
 O Lamb of God! still keep me 724
 O Lord! how happy should we be . . 416
 O Lord! how joyful 'tis to see 607
 O Lord! in sorrow I resign 418
 O Love Divine! that stooped to 371
 O Love, who ere life's earliest dawn. 146
 O mother dear, Jerusalem 713
 O my soul! what means this sadness 367
 Once in royal David's City 555
 Once more, my soul, the rising day. 28
 Once more the solemn season calls. 584
 Once was heard the song of children 557

- On the mountain's top appearing... 617
 Onward, Christian soldiers..... 459
 O paradise, O paradise..... 706
 O sacred Head, now wounded..... 191
 O sinner, bring not tears alone..... 289
 O Source divine, and Life of all... 130
 O Spirit of the living God..... 615
 Other knowledge I disdain..... 512
 O Thou, that hearest the prayer of.. 292
 O Thou to whom, in ancient time... 636
 O Thou, to whose all-searching..... 645
 O Thou, who by a star didst guide.. 175
 O Thou, who dri'st the mourner's... 484
 O Thou, who hast Thy servants 430
 O Thou whose bounty fills my cup . 470
 O Thou, whose own vast temple.... 496

 Our God, our help in ages past.... 425
 Our God stands firm, a Rock and... 123
 Our Lord is risen from the dead... 210
 Out of the depths have I cried.... 324
 Out of the depths of woe..... 326
 O wisdom! spreading mightily 153
 O word of God incarnate..... 345
 O Zion! tune thy voice..... 62
 Oh, cease, my wandering soul 408
 Oh! could I find from day to day... 437
 Oh! could I speak the matchless... 393
 Oh, deem not they are blest alone... 465
 Oh, for a closer walk with God.... 451
 Oh! for a faith that will not shrink. 360
 Oh! for a heart to praise my God... 463
 Oh! for a thousand tongues to sing. 378
 Oh! gift of gifts! Oh! grace of 330
 Oh, happy day, that fixed my choice 501
 Oh! injured Majesty of heaven.... 311
 Oh! let Thy grace perform its part. 601
 Oh! may my heart, by grace 464
 Oh! what amazing words of grace.. 379
 Oh! what if we are Christ's..... 411
 Oh! where are kings and empires.. 588
 Oh! where shall rest be found..... 256
 Oh! worship the King, all glorious. 135
 PEACE, peace, I leave with you.... 542
 Peace, troubled soul, whose plaintive 279
 Pleasant are Thy courts above..... 587
 Poor, weak, and worthless, tho' I... 521
 Pour out Thy Spirit from on high .. 492
 Praise God, from whom all blessings 101
 Praise, Lord, for Thee in Zion waits. 129
 Praise the name of God most high... 30
 Praises we're bringing to Jesus.... 398
 Praise to God, immortal praise 576
 Praise to Thee, Thou great Creator. 94
 Praise ye the Father! for His loving 85
 Praise ye the Lord, ye immortal.... 127
 Prayer is the soul's sincere desire .. 429
 REJOICE, rejoice, believers 672
 Rejoice! the Lord is King 212
 Rest for my soul I long to find 644
 Rest for the toiling hand..... 480
 Return, my roving heart! return... 605
 Ride on! ride on in majesty 185
 Ring again, ye starry chime 177
 Rise, glorious Conqueror! rise..... 219
 Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings 81
 Rock of Ages, cleft for me..... 503
 SAFE home, safe home in port..... 711
 Safely thro' another week..... 46
 Salvation! O the joyful sound..... 263
 Saviour, again to Thy dear name we. 505
 Saviour! breathe an evening..... 47
 Saviour, like a Shepherd lead us... 556
 Saviour! teach me, day by day 400

 Sleep thy last 'sleep..... 663
 Softly now the light of day..... 31
 Soldiers of Christ! arise 637
 Soon may the last glad song arise... 634
 Sow in the morn thy seed..... 570

- Spirit Divine! attend our prayers... 240
 Spirit of power and might! behold. 243
 Spirit of power, and truth, and love. 231
 Stand up, and bless the Lord..... 27
 Stand up, my soul! shake off thy... 403
 Stand up, stand up for Jesus 611
 Still, still with Thee, my God..... 52
 Still, still with Thee, when purple .. 21
 Summer suns are glowing..... 107
 Sun of my soul, Thou Saviour dear. 33
 Surely Christ thy griefs hath borne. 194
 Sweet feast of love divine..... 514
 Sweet is the light of Sabbath eve... 44
 Sweet is the memory of His name.. 523
 Sweet is the mem'ry of Thy grace.. 121
 Sweet is Thy mercy, Lord..... 128
 Sweet the moments, rich in blessing. 442

 The perfect world, by Adam trod... 497
 The proudest heart that ever beat.. 270
 Therefore with angels and archangels 268
 There is a Fountain filled with blood 533
 There's a Friend for little children.. 550
- There is a green hill far away..... 184
 There is a land immortal..... 725
 There is a land of pure delight..... 715
 There is a name I love to hear 375
 There is a time, we know not when. 288
 The roseate hues of early dawn.... 361
 The royal banner is unfurled 389
 The sands of time are wasting..... 707
 These are the crowns, that we shall. 714
 The solemn service now is done.... 493
 The Son of God goes forth to war.. 448

 Thine forever, God of love..... 475
 This is the day the Lord hath made. 38
 This is the glorious day..... 593
 Thou art gone up on high..... 647
 Thou art the Way; to Thee alone... 181
 Thou knowest, Lord, the weariness. 432
 Thou lovely Source of true delight. 413
 Thou, Saviour! art the Living bread 405
 Thou who roll'st the year around... 564
 Thou, whose almighty Word 79
 Thus far the Lord has led me on ... 7
 Thy head, the crown of thorns that. 534
 "Thy Kingdom come!" O blessed.. 676
 Thy way, not mine, O Lord..... 468
 Thy way, O God! is in the sea..... 359
 "Thy will be done!" (Chant)... 489
 "Till He come:" Oh let the words. 508
 Time, thou speedest on but slowly.. 652
 'Tis by the faith of joys to come... 363
 "'Tis finished!" so the Saviour.... 188
 'Tis God the Spirit leads 242
 'Tis heaven begun below..... 67
 'Tis midnight! and on Olive's brow. 183
 To-day the Saviour calls 261
 To-day Thy mercy calls me..... 316
 To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.... 124

 To God on high be thanks and..... 309
 To God,—the Father, Son..... 543
 To Him that chose us first..... 82
 To our Redeemer's glorious name .. 384
 To praise the ever-bounteous Lord. 566
 To Thy temple I repair..... 59
 To us a child of hope is born..... 159
 Triumphant Zion, lift thy head 630
 Trust in the Lord, forever trust.... 590
- UPWARD I lift mine eyes..... 353
 Upward where the stars are burning 712
- WAIT, my soul! upon the Lord.... 474
 Watchman! tell us of the night ... 679
 We all, O Lord, have gone astray... 604
 Weary of earth, and laden with my. 306
 Weary of wandering from my God.. 319
 We bid Thee welcome, in the name. 494
 We bless Thee for Thy peace, O.... 423
 We give immortal praise..... 83
 Welcome, delightful morn..... 25
 We sing His love, who once was.... 666
 We thank Thee, Father, for the day. 49
 Whate'er my God ordains is right... 487
 What equal honors shall we bring... 139
 What grace, O Lord! and beauty... 178
 What sinners value I resign..... 665
